Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

Someone said to me the other day that they wished I would give some ideas for meals. You know what they mean--one really has to do some mental gymnastics to come up with a meal that is different and enjoyable. After all, it is an everyday job.

Here is one you may have had recently or a long time ago and just forgotten about. Cut round into serving pieces, salt, pepper and dredge each in flour, brown in heavy oil with cooking oil, turning meat as it browns. Cover with white filling top, cook slowly. When moisture begins to form around meat, slice sweet white onion over top. Turn several times while cooking, about 2 hours. Turn several times while cooking. When meat is tender, gravy and onions should be just thick enough. Place meat on platter, cover with wide noodles (cooked according to directions). Pour gravy and onions over all. You may prefer potatoes or rice as a side dish instead of noodles. Serve with tossed salad or green vegetable.

Since this main dish meal more or less just "shanks" along for two hours or more, and you have to be there, you might want to make a dinner. Rhubarb is now on the market and it really gives a tang to the meal.

To make good pastry, use your own recipe. If you happen to be the one of the many who "freeze" at the thought, you can use frozen frozen pastry shells at your grocery. Should you try this recipe, 2 cups flour, 2/3 cup shortening, 1/3 cup cold butter, 1/2 cup salt, 1/2 cup water, keeping the pastry cool. Add water, keeping the pastry cool. Add 3 to 4 cups diced rhubarb, 1 1/2 cups of 4 to 6 tablespoons flour and dot with butter. Cover with lattice or top roll. Bake at 450 degrees and bake about 30 minutes.

If time is short, you can use a frozen pie shell. In a 10 minute pie shell, fill with cooked rhubarb, sweetened to taste. Serve with prepared whipped topping.

Coffee Cake
 Serve this for Sunday morning breakfast with bacon or sausage.

In large bowl, mix to cornmeal (stage stick of margarine, 2 cups brown sugar, 2 cups flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Take out one cup of mixture, add 3 teaspoons of cinnamon and 1/2 cup chopped nuts and save for nutcrust. Add 1 cup butter milk and 1 teaspoon soda to remaining mixture. Mix well, pour into well greased pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

You may mix the ingredients the day before, then add liquid just before baking. Don't forget to take out that one cup for the topping.

Try this--

Nut Bread
 1 egg
 1 cup sugar
 1 cup sweet milk
 1/2 cup sifted flour
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons butter
 2 teaspoons baking powder
 1/2 cup nuts
 1/2 cup sugar, cream well, add beaten egg, baking powder and salt together. Add the milk alternately with the flour, then put in nuts and nuts fold into batter on dusted with flour.

Bake in a moderate oven 350 degrees for about 1 hour. Serve with warm butter.

I just wrap in a little wax paper then a heavy tea towel, so it won't sweat and get soft.

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will, when the road you're on seems all uphill, when the friends are few and the odds are high, and you want to smile, but have to sigh, when care is pressing you down a bit, well, rest, when care is pressing you down a bit, well, rest, when care is pressing you down a bit, well, rest.

Good judgment comes from experience, and experience comes from bad judgment.

Dee Briggs had company from Paris, Sunday, Mrs. Pearl Rule and her daughter-in-law Betty visited him.

Robert Dewalt of Hamersville, Ohio and Mrs. Evelyn McIntyre visited Grandpa and Betty Dewalt.

These clients do get around even when there is no snow on the ground. Roger and Mary Ann were down from Lexington. Miss Joe Burdett, His son Sam came up from Louisville too.

Tom: Who made someone happy this week? Bill: I did.

Tom: What did you do? Bill: I went to see my aunt and she was happy when I went home.

The old folks have pretty new gowns, some are pink and some are blue. They are a bunch of "appled" people under a big red wagon. A Lizzie Natiff has been doing a bit of entertaining to other folks were down from Winchester and some from Paris.

March 8-14 Named Girl Scout Week

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., nearly 4 million across the country, are celebrating their big week of the year March 8-14, The Girl Scout Week.

And members of the organization in Nicholas County will be celebrating the week with a variety of activities.

Nicholas County is served by the Girl Scouts of Central and Eastern Kentucky, which provides professional services in 55 Central and Eastern Kentucky, plus one each in Ohio and Tennessee.

The Council, with headquarters in Lexington, serves 11,000 Girl Scouts and is headed by Mrs. Graydon A. Long of Lexington as council president.

Girl Scout Week, marking the 50th birthday of Girl Scouting, was launched symbolically and actively by Girl Scouts Sunday, March 8. There citizens saw many Girl Scouts in uniform in their church Sunday morning, and perhaps taking part in the morning meditation.

A total of 55,000 folders telling the Girl Scout story and giving the facts about Girl Scouting were distributed among churches in the 57 county area for distribution Sunday with regular church services.
