Since chicken is one of our more economical meats to serve for guests, let me give you this recipe that can be fixed before guests arrive--then put in the oven, covered with reynolds wrap and heated.

Chicken Breasts In Sherry--Lillian Collins Tucker

Halves of chicken breasts (4 whole--but do split them in half). Put 1/4 pound of margarine in heavy large skillet. Brown chicken slowly in this, take about 20 minutes. When brown transfer chicken to an open pyrex baking dish--(an 8 3/4" x 13 1/2" will accomodate 8 halves). If you don't have this size two smaller ones will do.

Brown one medium size onion, thinly sliced, in the margarine chicken was browned in--add 3/4 cup sherry, 1 cup straight cocktail sherry--(not cooking sherry), 1 cup tomatoe juice. Salt, pepper and sugar to taste. Just a hint of sugar. Bring to boil. Pour this sauce over chicken. Be sure chicken is placed skin side down in baking dish and cook uncovered 30 minutes at 375 degrees. Turn, cook 30 minutes. Turn again and cook 15 minutes. During last 15 minutes cook Minute Rice--when done place in center of large warm meat platter and put chicken breasts around rice. Dot rice with butter and fresh ground pepper. Use one or two tablespoons of sauce over rice. Pour rest of sauce in small bowl so everyone may add more to each serving.

A green vegetable, congealed fruit salad and hot rolls and you have a company dinner. Instead of congealed salad you might like spiced fruit. Cling peaches and pineapples are good.

Drain juice from fruit--add two sticks of cinnamon, 1 piece of ginger root, 8 whole cloves, 1/4 cup vinegar and two or three tablespoons of sugar and dash of salt. Cook gently 15 minutes. (If you find the juice a bit too tart add a little more sugar. However remember when you add the drained peaches and pineapples it will dilute the spiced juice.) Add fruit and keep in refrigerator two or three days before serving. If you want to add a bit of color red and green spiced apples or pears may be purchased at your local grocery. Drain and add to the spiced fruit just before serving.

For a light dessert with coffee, pass these Lady Kisses on a pretty serving dish and relax and enjoy your guests.

Lady Kisses

2 egg whites
1 tsp. vinegar
1 tsp. vanilla
1 1/2 cups confectioners sugar
1 1/2 cups chopped pecans

Heat egg whites until firm but not dry, add sugar and vinegar gradually and continue beating. After sugar has been added 5 minutes. Fold in nuts and vanilla. Drop from teaspoon on greased baking sheet. Bake 12 to 15 minutes in a slow oven 275 to 300.

Kisses should be firm but very light in color. Let stand a few minutes before removing from sheet. Yield 4 dozen.

Nursing Home News

By Virginia Smith Donovan

No day is complete that has not had a sprinkling of a few kind words or deeds through its twenty-four hours. Helping it lighten the burden of our fellow men is like erasing the clouds from the horizon so that sun can come through into the life of another. The radiance will reflect upon our own lives making them sweeter to live.

There were so many Sunday visitors. Some folks ate in the dining room with their friends and loved ones. The good cooks served vegetables of several kinds, hot rools, butter, jello salad, ham, ice cream, angel food cake, tea, coffee or milk. Mrs. Ida Harney's folks from Cincinnati, Ed and Ruth Brambliett ate with her and her good friend, Mrs. E.O. Spratt.

Lawrence Price's folks came down from Lexington and joined him for lunch.

Jim Letcher went through the hall and to look at him, you really felt like spring had come. He was dressed up in a new pair of pajamas. His brother Earl, had brought them to him. He really looked "sharp."

The girls' hair didn't look so nice this week. It was because the good beautician, Frances Hughes, has had the flu and hadn't been able to beautify them. We are glad she has improved enough to open her shop door and be able to meet each with her usual patience and big smile.

Henry Ellison's folks came from Mt. Oliver. The Baxters and Phoebuses came from Falmouth. They were all glad to see his good sister, Nellie. She had recently moved but now seems to be comfortably situated.

As usual Leroy Coopers folks came from Maysville.

Have you noticed Jane Scott's new hair do? She looks like she had found the "fountain of youth."

We just hope we won't have a dry summer like 1930. Tom Jackson said his father J.W. Jackson said he shucked his corn, put it in the crib without any rain that year. We just wonder how it ever grew.

Mrs. Stella Watkins had company from Paris. Mrs. Katherine Williams and Mrs. Leilla Richardson came Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gifford visited Dee Briggs Saturday. Mrs. Gifford is Mr. Briggs' niece.

At this writing, the only one in the hospital is Miss Effie Anderson.

What cost God so much cannot be cheap for us.

Charley Briggs from Hamilton, Ohio visited his brother, Dee Briggs, Saturday.

Apply For Medicare Enrollment

A general enrollment period to apply for Medicare will be in effect during January, February and March 1970 according to LaFaun Horn, Field Representative, for the Social Security Administration.

The medical insurance part of Medicare is voluntary and no one is covered automatically. Applications for medical insurance which primarily covers payment of doctor bills must be made during a specified period of time. This is the three month period prior to attainment of age 65 and three months after the 65th birthday month plus the first three months of every year. Failure to apply for this coverage could mean the loss of valuable protection in the event of lengthy illness.

For further details, contact the social security office, 1300 Leestown Road, Room 338 Bakhaus Building, Lexington, Ky. 40505.
