Richmond Garden Club Presents Open House Tour

The Richmond Garden Club will present its first Open House in Kentucky, Inc. house tour on May 17, from 1-3 p.m. The tour will be a walking tour in the heart of old Richmond and will start at the new First Christian Church which has been called the "Cathedral Church of the South."

Visitors will enter the Narthex through the double front doors and will be guided through the building. Parking is available immediately behind the structure off Lancaster Avenue. On leaving through the garden on Lancaster Avenue, they will go next to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Greene at 204 Lancaster Avenue.

The Green home set back from the street, is unnoticed by many but calls to mind a hidden jewel in a lovely setting. Inside are many other gems, each a setting equally lovely.

The second home on the tour is one of Richmond's oldest and most picturesque homes. This home and adjoining cottage, in the midst of lovely grounds, belongs to Mr. and Mrs. George Ross and contains a large and rare collection of antiques.

Just up the street, the next stop on the tour, is the white brick contemporary house of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Begley. Decorated completely in pastel colors and
