

NURSING HOME NEWS

Mrs. Nina Baugus' daughter, Miss Catherine Baugus, flew down from Chicago where Mrs. Baugus had been for several months. Catherine came along to see that she was well situated.

When Kentucky became a state in 1792, there were 41 churches within its boundaries.

We just can't be perfect. Will make mistakes. Last week it was stated that the Adult Bible class of the Carlisle Christian Church had sent Herman Conyer to the Lexington Hotel for one year. This is the third year for him to enjoy the paper. There was another mistake too. It was Mr. Jim and his sister, Miss Ann Letcher, who instead of Mitchell, who had been transferred to a Central in their home. They were accompanied by their brother, Earl Letcher.

Mrs. Viola Lyons of Millersburg is the new Director of Nursing.

Mrs. J.C. Spratt, who has been a resident of the home for several months has been transferred to Conyer's Home in Mt. Sterling. Her daughter, Mrs. Waller Sharp of Sharpburg came to help her move.

How many of you ladies remember when we were young about making up Larkin orders? What ever happened to Mr. Larkin? Did Mr. Aven buy him out?

It's not the number of people who are working at a business that makes it successful, it's the number who are loyal.

Faith is contagious. It's caught as well as taught. It's like the best I can. So I will seek to know God's will. And always follow well His plan To make to-morrow better.

Alumni officers this year are: Harold Green, president; Robert C. A. Wall, vice-president; Betty King Overly, secretary; Sarah Lab Bell, treasurer; and John Steady, reporter.
