Nursing Home News

By Virginia Smith Donovan

I have lived 86 years. I have watched men climb up to success, hundreds of them and all the elements that are important for success, the most important is faith. No great thing comes to any man unless he has courage.--Cardinal James Gibbons

"Red" Purcell and Herman Conyers should have a medal, for they went to the Christian Church revival every night. "Red" is now a member. Mertie Jones, G.L.P.N. went one night.

B.F. Howard and son of Elkhart, IN visited Orville Howard.

George Sosby really had company from Winchester, Sunday. His sister-in-law, Mrs. Bell Sosby; niece Catherine Barnett and his great nephews Donald, Philip, Jeffrey and Billy Hood, and great niece, Marylan Barnett visited.

Thelma Morris should be real fat for she helps cook the good food at the home and on special occasions has food brought in. Friday was her birthday. Her children and most of her grandchildren came with well filled baskets and lots of presents. She was really surprised.

The Hitts and Porters from Maysville came up to see their father and grandfather, Leroy Cooper.

Mrs. May Flora and Miss Bea Ashcraft of Robertson County came to see "Doc" Ahnee.

Mr. and Mrs. M.L. Blake and Miss Edna Hammonds were in Sunday to see the Fleming County folks.

Mrs. Ellen Kenney really takes the cake. She hadn't been eating in the dining room for a couple of years. Now she goes once a day as she says, "In one of their little huggies", she also had her hair washed and watched tv several times.

The following came Sunday to see Mrs. Carrie Marshall: Mrs. Eunice Harper, Hattie Terrell, Peggy Howard and Kathleen Martin, all from South Shore.

Champagne is a beverage that helps you to see double and feel single.

An optimist is a man who thinks that the dry cleaners are shrinking the waistline of his trousers.

Mary and Paul Crouch of Lexington came Sunday to see their mother, Mrs. Nan Crouch and aunt, Mrs. Essie Dalzelle.

Frances Kash Royce and her sister-in-law, Mrs. C.V. Haller, of Winchester visited Mrs. Lula Kash on Sunday.

Now they are coming to the home in halves. Miss Effie Anderson's two half aunts, Mrs. Henry Hunt and Mrs. Leonard Wilcoxen came up from Pleasant Valley.

Uncle Tom Jackson said he went to his first school at Ball Hill and the teacher was Jerry Ogden. This was about 1900; said that Tony Dotson could tell us more about this, for he was a term or two ahead of him. When told that we thought Tony was dead, Uncle Tom said he wasn't the last time he saw him!

John Smitson has a nice looking strong cane, could hardly buy one like it now. He said it came from Ratliff Bros. years ago.

Little Laura and Lesia Hardin came from Lexington to see their uncle, Lawrence Price.

Some people are never happy unless they are miserable.

It is no disgrace to start all over, It is usually an opportunity.--George Matthew Adams

Am I too busy acting like a Christian to be one?"--Upper Room.

Jackie: "Mom, when we have company for dinner tonight, do I have to eat my pie with a fork?"

Mother; "Yes."

Jackie: "Well, may I have a piece to practice on?"

A man is not rewarded for brains--only for using them.

About the only way to make money stretch these days is to invest in rubber bands.

Dottie George came down from Millersburg and was telling us that Rick Kielman who is in the Army Reserve is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, MO.

Mrs. John Keller of Harlan visited her great aunt, Mrs. Ellen Kenny, Mrs. Dorothy Lovallen of Paris came too.

At this writing, Earl Smathers is the only home resident in the local hospital.

Bobby Medley's baby son, Robert Jr's burned arm is improving.

Mrs. Eva Clinkenbeard has gone back to live at her home at Libjerty Heights.

In removing buttons from clothing, you won't snip the fabric if you slide a comb under the button and cut the thread carefully with a razor blade.

Your woolens like your husband should be treated with care. One expert recommends rinsing wool in lukewarm water to which one teaspoon of borax has been added.

The late Mrs. Ida Smith was often heard to say, "If we knew just what was before us the trees would be handing full."

"Tis not in titles nor in rank, 'Tis not in wealth like London bank,

To make us truly blest.

If happiness have not her seat and center in the breast,

We may be wise, or rich or great, But never can be blest."--Mc-Guffey's Fourth Reader.

Vets Get Income Questionnaires

Over 43,000 Kentucky veterans and dependents who received monthly VA pension checks will receive annual income questionnaires with their Nov. 1 check, J.G. Ratliff, Director of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Louisville, announced.

Ratliff pointed out 1971 pension payments will be based on information submitted by the recipients. He urged prompt response to the questionnaire as payments will be withheld unless the form is completed and returned no later than Jan. 15, 1971.

VA pension payments go to veterans totally and permanently disabled from injury or illness not connected with military service. Widows and children of deceased veterans also receive such pensions if they meet certain income limitations.

Parents of deceased veterans who receive dependency and indemnity compensation payments are also required to fill out and return the questionnaire.

Pension recipients, unlike service-connected compensation, are based on the amount of income received from other sources. The income questionnaire requests information on the amount of income the beneficiary received in 1970 and the amount expected in 1971.

Ratliff emphasized that failure to return the questionnaire could not only cause pension payments to stop, but could result in a person having to refund all pension payments received during 1970.

Pensioners who need assistance in completing the questionnaire may contact the VA office at 600 Federal Place, Louisville, KY, 40202.
