

Jaycee Blue Jets Meet Paris At Home Tonight

The Jaycee Blue Jets will host the Paris Kiwanis Little League for a double header on the gridiron this Thursday (10/15). The Pee Wee's (9-10-11) will begin the first contest at 6:30 p.m. at the NCHS field. The Small Fry (12-13) clash will begin at approximately 7:45 p.m.

When the Blue Jets met the Tigers at Paris earlier in the season, they chalked up one win and one loss. These young gridderers are out to score a victory for both Blue Jet squads in this return match. Fans should find this an interesting evening of tightly contested football.

Last Friday was Little League night at the NCHS Blue jacket game. The Jaycee Blue Jet Small Fry squad met the Lexington Ironjans in a pre-varsity game which ended in a 8-5 deadlock.

The Trojans scored in the first frame which ended 6-0. Midway in the second, Fred Proce, Jr. passed to Billy Darrell about mid-field and he swung down the field to the two yard line. On the next play Proce Blair shot through the line for the six point tally. Gerald Thompson then galloped around left end for the two-point conversion making the score 8-8 as they left the field at halftime.

During the second half both teams threatened, but the defense held firm, for the 8-8 tie as the horn sounded.

W.F. THRELKELD, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Allen Darrell, Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Hollar and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whaley (left to right) attended the 27th Annual Convention of the Kentucky Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts, Oct. 6 to 8, at Cumberland Falls State Park.

B'grass Artists Association To Hold Exhibit On Oct. 13 And Nov. 1 At Shakertown

The restored Shaker village at Pleasant Hill near Harrodsburg is offering an artists' house to visitors at October's end. It has anything to do with Halloween and the old Shakers probably took a dim view of anything as frivolous as art for art's sake. But it's nonetheless interesting and will certainly please a lot of people.

The Bluegrass Artists Association is holding an exhibit of its members' work at Shakertown Oct. 13 and Nov. 1. It has more than 125 members, amateur and professional, and Jim Young of Lexington, its president, says that a hundred or more will have their work on exhibition.

The pictures (no sculpture, pottery or wood carvings) are in a variety of media and all will be for sale. You can buy a small item for maybe a couple of dollars and you can go up to perhaps several hundred dollars for the more elaborate paintings.

The show will be held outdoors if the weather permits. Otherwise it will be in one of the restored buildings. There is no extra charge for the exhibit, just the usual admission to Shakertown.

O.E.S. To Meet

The Marie Chapter No. 259 O.E.S. will meet Monday, Oct. 19, at 7:30 p.m., at the Masonic Temple for a regular meeting.

All members are urged to be present.

Senior Girl Scouts

Hold Regular Meeting

The regular meeting of Senior Girl Scout Troop 170 was held at the home of Frisha Ockerman. The program for the night was an open discussion on marriage and "after graduation" moderated by Rev. Dallas Sugg and Rev. Harold Rice.

The business of the evening was the clearing up of old business from last year and the making of plans for some future meetings.

Scout Patricia Ockerman and June Small attended Senior Planning Board in Lexington on Sept. 19. The Planning Board is a group of representatives from all senior scout troops in the Wilderness Road Council and its purpose is to plan council wide events for senior girl scouts.

After the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Inna Ockerman.

Troop 170 will have a bike hike on Sunday, Oct. 18. Members are to assemble at 2:00 p.m. in the parking lot of IGA with their bikes and a snack for late afternoon.

Ohio Visitors

Mrs. Betty Kautz, Mrs. Julie Hughes, Mrs. Jean Barrett, scout leaders of Troop No. 111, Cadette Girl Scouts from Deer Park, OH visited relatives in Nicholas County.

Karen Kautz, Lindy Frey, Debbie Wolf, Jeanne Madden, Cathy Updegraff, Janice Jeffries, Nancy Fasnacht, Tracey Barrett, Kim Dunham, Lee Ann Kohari, Diane Reiss, Karen Bachman, Karin Sanders spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hughes at the Hughes Farm. They also visited Blue Licks Museum and Battleground, Forest Retreat Farm and Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Gannon.

On Saturday night they attended Mass in Carlisle.

Baptist Women

To Meet Oct. 22

The Bracken Association Baptist Women's Missionary Union will meet at the Stone Lick Baptist Church Thursday, Oct. 22, at 10:00 a.m.

Conferences for age level groups will be held at this time to train local church leadership in W.M.U. work.

Mrs. Jack Bruce, director, will preside.

Revival

A revival starting Sunday, Oct. 18 will be at the Carlisle Assembly of God Church, with the Rev. W. J. Lacy, Monticello, AR as evangelist. Services each evening at 7:30 p.m.
