

The Nursing Home News

God does not flatten out the road but grants us strength to hit bumps. The more one unjustly shares, the greater the joy. Be grateful for marriage. Without it you'd have to fight with strangers.

As we walked into the home there sat Tony Deans in his wheelchair, just like he had taken on new life. He wanted to talk about Tom Jackson, said Tom had always been a hard worker, said Tom was a nuisance though had to stop and examine everything to see what it was made out of.

Lizzie Ratliff, we are sorry to say, is in our local hospital; has had surgery. However, she has a good substitute, Mrs. Eugene Leitcher. She can really sing and has such a pleasing way about it.

Henry T. Caswell is a new orderly.

John Flora of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. visited his grandfather, John Barton. John came on plane 7-1, which is a commercial and holds Billy Graham says a man stands here when he is on his knees.

Wilmore Garbar was a Union, Ohio, visited his brother, J. P. Barlow. Mr. Barlow said his brother was born where they lived in Lexington County, near Wilmore, and that's where he got his name.

Barbara Griffin seems to be the daughter of her sister. She has made visits to the library to get books with Big pictures for the movies. Barbara likes her brother. Louise Wieman came from Lexington Saturday to see her mother. Mrs. U.M. Swindler and brought her mother four mad flowers, all the colors of the rainbow.

When in Louisville, I talked over the phone to Freda Fretwell Baldwin. She wanted to hear from her old friends and neighbors at the home, and sent them greetings and also to her church friends.

Mrs. Claudia Wells was visited by her son, Arthur recently.

Mrs. Cora Chance says she is doing the best she can. Aunt Cora is too. She doesn't breathe to say she has a Maker to call on and she does too.

The good old days appear when you're too young to appreciate them.

A traveling salesman is a man who wishes he had as much fun on the road as his wife thinks he has when he is on his knees.

Mrs. Grace Ledford attended the funeral of her sister, J. P. Sewell Schotfield in Cincinnati, Ada Ledford, 44 years ago.

Steve and Phillip One came from Lexington and took their mother to a talent show for each patient.

Roy Spang attended Sunday school. He was on Sunday; said he hadn't heard from his brother for a few days.

Baby Sarah Catherine Blount made her first visit to see her great grandmother. Mrs. Eva Blount. She was a month old on March 15, and has gained two pounds.

The pretty St. Patrick's Day favors were made by some of the members of the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe Church.

George Clark was around and brought beautiful Jossque to Miss Cordia Bell.

Ken Mann and Phil Hillcock went the company over the weekend. They came from Aberdeen and in a pretty white vase.

Mr. and Mrs. Duwood Curtis and mother, Mrs. William Berry of Dayton, Ohio visited W.J. Kimberling.

Have you made someone happy or someone sad? What have you done with the day you had?

Mrs. Vada Peltry really had the company over the weekend. They came from Aberdeen and in a pretty white vase.

Mr. and Mrs. Duwood Curtis and mother, Mrs. William Berry of Dayton, Ohio visited W.J. Kimberling.

Have you made someone happy or someone sad? What have you done with the day you had?
