Juniors Conference

NICHOLAS COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL REPRESENTATIVES AT UK--Mrs. Brenda Anderson (center), a counselor at Nicholas County High School, was in Lexington recently to bring Bill Young, Route 2, and Sandra Reid, Route 4, both of Carlisle and both juniors at Nicholas County High School, to the University of Kentucky's eleventh annual High School Juniors Conference. The three-day program consisted of sharing classes and dormitory rooms with UK students in addition to attending special academic orientation sessions.

REVIVAL SCHEDULED

The Headquarters United Methodist Church will begin a two week revival on Monday night May 3rd with services each evening at 7:30. Rev. Don Fryman will be evangelist and special singing each evening.

The public is cordially invited to all these services.

Seniors Receive Awards

Three Nicholas County senior girls have been awarded financial aid to Morehead State University in the forms of scholarships, educational opportunity grants, and NDEA loans. They are: Vicky Brunker, Barbara Caswell, and Ruth Ann Harney.

Vicky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin J. Brunker of Cynthiana, Route 4, received a $600 grant, a $100 NDEA loan, and a student workship for the fall of 1971. She also received a $175 NDEA loan for this summer.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Caswell of 317 Walnut Street, received a $200 scholastic scholarship and a $500 NDEA loan.

Ruth Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brunker Harney of Cynthiana, Route 4, received a $200 scholastic scholarship, a $400 grant, and a $200 NDEA loan.

If these girls enter the teaching or nursing profession, only half of their NDEA loan will have to be paid back. All three of these girls are honor students at Nicholas County High where they are actively engaged in all phases of school activities.

"Electric Heat gives us 8 rooms of perfect comfort FOR ONLY $244 A YEAR!"

Mr. & Mrs. H. R. Benton of Irvine, Ky.

"That's a lot of great comfort for the money," says Mr. Benton. "And with electric heat you don't run into those painful extras like maintenance and repair bills."

"Imagine what a difference it makes to me, too," adds Mrs. Benton. "All those rooms to keep clean—but no problems at all, because electricity is as clean as electric light. A real time, work and money saver."

LISTEN TO FACTS NOT FICTION.

If you plan to build or modernize, call our nearest office. We'll give you an accurate estimate of all heating costs. Then you decide.
