Kay's Kitchen

— By Kay Fisher

No one is in the mood nor does one have time to do a lot of fancy baking or cooking right now, two days before Christmas. I shall just say thank you for the help you have given me by sending in your recipes. I even enjoy getting your requests and seeing the response I get from an S.O.S.

May your Christmas be one of thanksgiving and happiness. I do hope you have made cookies, candy, baked a cake or fruit or nut bread and in a pretty wrapping, shared it with your neighbor or someone living alone who may not feel the urge to bake for one person. A gift of food you have made yourself donates thoughtfulness.

If you enjoy cooking perhaps during the summer or fall you made homemade jams or jellies, pickles or some specality of your own. Wrap a jar in Christmas paper and tie it with a perky bow. If it is candy, cake or cookies, put them on a Christmas paper plate, wrap in clear paper and tie with a big red bow.

Better still, would be to invite someone to your home for Christmas dinner or for an evening snack. This year make a point of actually doing something for someone outside your own family and close friends.

Holiday Show

Special holiday greetings will be sent out over the air waves via WKYT-tv, channel 27, Lexington, on Christmas Eve 8:30 to 9:00 p.m. and Christmas Day, 4:00-5:00 p.m. "The Ray Conniff Christmas Show", featuring Ray Conniff and the Ray Conniff singers.

This tune-filled hour will contain all of the favorite traditional carols, plus several bright, happy modern day holiday songs. Selections by the choir include "Here We Come A Caroling", "O Holy Night," "We Three Kings of Orient Are", "Deck the Halls" "Joy to the World," "Silent Night", and "Here Comes Santa Claus." Set in a gayly decorated mountain lodge, "The Ray Conniff Christmas Show" also features Alan Young reading "The Little Gray Lamb", with Ray Conniff's beautiful "The Real Meaning of Christmas" in the background.

Another added attraction for the children are the delightful Pixiekin Puppets in two specially staged numbers.

Local sponsor of the show is the First National Bank.

Miranda Homemakers

The Miranda Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. Albert Booth on Dec. 8, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Edgar A. Darrell, president. Roll call and minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Edith Kendall, secretary and treasurer. Three visitors were present at this meeting. Plans were made for remembering Shut-Ins at Christmas.

The program "Joy to the World, The Lord is Come," was given by Mrs. Rachel Stacey and Mrs. Eugene Smoot. The scripture was Luke 2: 8-16.

After the program, gift exchanging was enjoyed, and refreshments were served by the hostess, and the co-hostess Mrs. Nancy Shaw.
