Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

No special meals or holidays for a few weeks. Just those regular three meals a day. It is really too early to start thinking of lighter spring foods, even on those bright sunny days, because knowing Kentucky weather, the temperature may drop at any time or tomorrow snow.

So for a few weeks I'll just ramble along and try to give you some recipes that will help you plan your meals.

The following recipe is an old fashion one. You may serve it for breakfast, lunch or dinner.

SCRAPPLE

1 pound lean pork
1 quart water
1 1/2 cups corn meal
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon finely chopped celery leaves (optional)
1/2 cup chopped parsley
1/2 teaspoon sage
1 egg, beaten
cracker crumbs or corn meal
bacon drippings

Simmer meat in water until tender. Remove meat, cool and grind. Measure remaining liquid and add enough water to make one quart. Bring broth to a boil and add corn meal slowly, stirring constantly until thick. Add seasonings and meat.

Pour mixture into loaf pan rinsed in water and chill until set. Slice, dip in beaten egg, then in cracker crumbs or corn meal. Brown in bacon drippings.

In purchasing the meat, you want fresh pork cut into cubes with little or no fat. I'm sure your butcher will be glad to do this for you. It is usually taken from an inexpensive cut of pork, so cook slowly for tenderness even though you are going to grind it.

If you are tired of potatoes the same old way, try this.

BAKED MASHED POTATOES

3 tablespoons of melted butter or margarine
2 cups mashed potatoes
2 eggs
1 cup condensed milk
salt to taste

Beat melted butter into mashed potatoes until creamy and smooth. Beat eggs until they are light and lemon colored. Add to potato mixture. Then add milk and beat well. Salt to taste. Butter a 1 quart casserole; pour in potato mixture and bake at 325 degrees for 50 to 50 minutes, or until puffed and light brown. Serve at once.

Since this takes awhile to cook, it does give you a chance to get the rest of your meal ready, so this dish can be served immediately.

When preparing regular mashed potatoes, cook more than you need so you will have enought left to fix this dish. Preparation time will be only minutes.

PORK LOIN ROAST

Place a pork loin roast on rack in shallow roasting pan. Roast uncovered at 325 degrees, allowing 30 to 45 minutes per pound. Plan on 2 1/2 to 3 hours for a 3 to 5 pound roast, 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 hours for a 5 to 7 pound roast.

Be sure to have base of rib bones cut for easy serving.

I usually pierce top (fat side) in several places with small sharp knife and insert a sliver of garlic and a piece or two of Rosemary. Then rub top with a piece of garlic and dredge with flour. Season with salt and pepper.

If you prefer you can top your roast with fruit--such as pineapple or peaches. To help them stay in place stuck round tooth picks through fruit into meat several places. Remove picks before serving. Baste several times while baking.

A good dessert for now is Gingerbread.

GINGERBREAD

2 eggs
3/4 cup brown sugar
3/4 cup molasses
3/4 cup melted shortening
2 1/4 cups flour
2 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
3/4 teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons ginger
1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 cup boiling water

Add beaten eggs to sugar, molasses and shortening. Add flour sifted with dry ingredients. Add hot water last. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 40 minutes. Serve with sauce or whipped cream.

For an extra touch add the last 8 minutes of baking time,
1/4 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
2 tablespoons flour.

Cut all this into 2 tablespoons butter. Stir in 1/2 cup chopped pecans.

Sprinkle on top, return to oven.

GINGERBREAD (English Style)

This recipe was sent to me recently by an English cousin. There is a distinct difference between Gingerbread here and in England. When they say Gingerbread, that is exactly what they mean. It is the consistancy of bread and not like ours which is really cake. The recipe came to me in pounds and ounces. Having just made it, I'll give you the equivalant in cups.

2 cups flour
1/4 pound margarine
1/4 cup sugar
2 tablespoons light corn syrup
2 tablespoons molasses
2 teaspoons ground ginger
1 teaspoon all spice
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup milk
few raisins and nuts (optional)

Put milk, soda, margarine in small sauce pan and warm to melt all together. Mix dry ingredients; add syrups and mixture in saucepan. Stir until blended. Put in a well greased pan. I used an 8 inch square tin. Serve hot with:

BROWN SUGAR SAUCE

4 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 cup brown sugar (packed firm)
1 cup water
2 tablespoons whiskey

Combine butter, cornstarch and sugar and heat over low heat until melted. Add water gradually, stirring constantly until mixture boils. Cook only a few minutes, remove from heat. Add whiskey. You may add raisins and nuts to sauce if they have been left out of the gingerbread.

Southern States Volume Shows 12 Percent Increase

Southern States Cooperative's dollar volume, exclusive of grain marketing, for the first six months of the 1970-71 fiscal year showed a 12% increase over the same period last year.

Net savings for the period reached $1,590,000, up $691,000 over last year.

This information was contained in a report presented by John Henderson, of Lexington, a regional manager of cooperative, to members at a regional board meeting held in Cynthiana on Feb. 17.

Henderson told the session that volume for the organization, not including grain marketing, stood at $63,200,000 for the first half of the fiscal year as compared to $56,300,000 a year ago.

Attending the session from this area were James Allison, manager of the local Southern States retail outlet here and board members, Edgar A, Darrell, Cliff Vice, Clay Fryman, Phil Hillock, Tom Fryman, and Herbert Cecil Duncan.

Feed volume for the six months period was 243,000 tons, up slightly over last year.

Fertilizer tonnage stood at 150,000 tons, as compared with 133,000 tons for the previous year.

Seed volume was $2,600,000'up slightly over last year.

Miscellaneous farm supply volume reached $14,800,000, up $1,500,000 over the same period last year.

Petroleum volume for the first six months was about 59,900,000 gallons, up about 2,000,000 gallons.

Volume for Southern States Grain Marketing Cooperative for the first six months was 7,910,000 bushels, about the same as last year. While more corn was marketed than the previous year, soybean marketing suffered because of short crops due to the extreme dry weather.

In addition to presenting the operations report, Henderson also reported on the organization's services and activities at the regional level.

Another feature of the meeting was a presentation by W.D. Moore Jr. of Richmond Va. the cooperative's director of agency operations, about the organization's projected growth and long range plans through 1975. He told the session that future growth of the cooperative will depend on: (1) adequate capital and (2) continuous growth of patron-member support. He urged all members to think more and more like owners of the cooperative--which they really are--and to invest in its securities, to support it with their patronage, to promote it with friends and neighbors, to participate in its programs and to lead the way in helping it grow.

James Campbell of Harrodsburg, a director of the cooperative, presided at the session.

"When things go wrong, don't go with them."
