CHS Class Of 1926 Holds 45th Reunion

The Carlisle High School class of 1926 met at the Masonic building Sat. night June 19 for their 45th class reunion. Miss Mary Frances Fisher, third grade teacher, presided over the occasion. The group played the traditional march and we marched in and sat down to a delicious meal carried out in school colors, green and white. Hamilton Feack, president, presided. Letters were read from those absent. Some had lots of faith, hope to attend our next reunion in 1976. One lost out three years, for she sent greetings to the class of 1926. Some one suggested that the "Alings" ones be sent a bottle of "Hidaco". A letter was read from W. H. Martin who lives in Florida. Bill has written several novels and is writing one now.

There were 34 in the class. The following are deceased: Elton Hutchings, Teddy Fox, Keller Hughes, Lola Harney, Grover Phillips, Gerald Moore, Katherine Frey, William Atkinson, Robert McClanahan and Ada Waugh. The following were absent: Jeanette Cox Jones, Betty Brown Jones, Freda Cox Caswell, Frances Kest Royce, Orlene Clary, Ellen Clary
