VA Timetable Outlined

Here's a timetable on requirements and benefits for veterans after their separation from military service, as reported by J.G. Raffler, Director, Veterans Administration Region 10, Louisville, Ky.

A veteran has 10 days to notify his local Service Branch Office of his address, and 30 days thereafter if he did not do so before entering military service.

If a veteran wants his old job back, he has 90 days to apply to his former employer for re-employment.

He has 120 days to convert his Servicemen's Group Life Insurance (SGLI) to an individual policy without examination. If totally disabled at separation, a veteran has up to one year, if his condition does not change, to convert his insurance. In either case, he must apply for the policy to one of the nearly 600 gross compensation agents or otherwise made from date a claim is received.

A veteran with a service-connected disability has one year from the date he received his notice of VA service-disabled to apply to VA for service-disabled veterans in-
