...elected would continue to review the state's tax structure. A five per cent severance tax and neither Emberton's Ford tax announced any rate, on coal would produce more than $30 million a year on an average price of $6 a ton for coal. Kentucky yielded 115 million tons last year. No estimate is available on oil and gas.

...Only two states have a lower cigarette tax than Kentucky, North Carolina with a tax of two cents and Virginia with two and a half, in comparison to Kentucky's three. Arkansas has next to the highest tax in the nation, upped in April from 12.75 to 17.25 cent per pack. The increase was more than in any other state.

...Whether to pass H. R. 8605 which defines "obscene" matter, excludes such matter from the mails with respect to minors, and provides a means to avoid receiving unsolicited sexual materials. Arkansas has next to the highest tax in the nation, upped in April from 12.75 to 17.25 cent per pack. The increase was more than in any other state.

...Whether to amend H. R. 8181 to remove authority permitting the financing of exports to countries supporting nations with which the United States is in armed conflict. Ayes, 207. Noes, 153. Agreed to, July 8. Mr. Watts voted Aye.

Outdoor Lore

By Neville Shackelford, Editor of Kentucky College Gazette
Several forms of wildlife are fairly accurate in forecasting changes in the weather, but they can't be trusted when it comes to announcing the arrival of spring. Even that herald of spring, the ubiquitous groundhog, often makes mistakes and, as old timers used to say, "looks through gas windows"—meaning that sometimes ponds freeze over after the frog first makes itself heard.
