Life itself can't give you "joy" unless you really set it. Life, just gives you time and space; it's up to you to fill it. Gladys Elster.

Mrs. Lorna Bell, said she'd like to ride out to the home with her, wanted to visit James immediately. A kind of relative told her never owned a car, got free with Gladys and Stanley, Leroy and Louise Earlywine and other friends.

Tom isn't helping this population explosion, has three new great-grandchildren, George Lynn 13 & Co. April, 1971, Anthony Smith's. June 19, 1971, and last but not least John Russell Snapp, July 7, 1971.

Francis has moved back to his home in the housing project. Herman Conyers says he believes he's over feeding the birds, would be better to let them get a little hungry.

Frank Mathias of Dayton, Ohio, who is spending his vacation with his family at Lake Cayuga, was down with Mrs. Verlie and Maude and others on Sunday.

When you are a perfect friend, you'll never have any.

"They" Larry and his granddaughter, Loyla Earlywine says she just loves to ride in the car with her daddy when he hauls cattle; rays she's seeing and learning about the world.

Charles Browning has left the home, don't know whether he went back to his Robertson County home or to a job with his children.

"Red" Purcell, "Andy" King and Stanley Dewey are again living at the home.

Herman Conyers attended the revival at Barterville Church on night.

Mrs. Mae Berry received an A.M. card from Marion Spelman who is vacationing in Europe, and a beautiful call, "Miss Coschie," has gone back to live at her home on Milltown Road.

When you are praying, don't forget to pray for someone else.

Nursing Home.

Ernest Swartz has been on the sick list, but we are glad she's back from the floor administering to the loved ones.

Jack Colville, Warner Lowe and George "Sam" Earlywine have gone to their eternal home.

Miss Elmira Frederick's friends came to visit and offered their sympathy when he was saddened by the death of his son-in-law, Lowell Shaw.

Mrs. and Mr. Albert Kern of Lexington and Mr. and Mrs. Verlie Conyers of Barterville visited Mrs. Ellen Kenney.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Massey and Mr. and Mrs. Mark and Nancy M. Oliver, visited Stanley Massey in his home in Hill Top, Kentucky.

Leslie White had visitors from the University of Kentucky, including 18 months-old Albert Cecil White, Jr. who is now in the hospital. Just because he is "in the church" doesn't mean he is a good boy. He never owned a car, got free with Gladys and Stanley, Leroy and Louise Earlywine and other friends.

The weekly worship service was on Sunday, July 11, by the Wesleyan Church, Rev. Don Mosley pastor.

Rev. Saunders gave the opening prayer. There was special music by the Mosley family.

Rev. Alvin Eckler read part of Psalm 121, talked of God's goodness and mercy toward us and reminded us that we were free moral agents and that God didn't make anyone serve Him.

Several hymns were sung but since there is no piano and the Mosley didn't bring their guitar, the singing wasn't so easily done. We were dismissed in prayer by Mrs. Mosley.

About 10:30, Dr. L. Brandenburg has moved back to his home on North Street.

It was so romantic, he begged her to give him her heart. "Why didn't she?" "He's a heart surgeon."

The fellow who spends all his time around joints can get them, don't know whether he went back to his Robertson County home or to a job with his children.

"Red" Purcell, "Andy" King and Stanley Dewey are again living at the home.
