Spring Tree Planting Season Approaching

The spring tree planting season is rapidly approaching, says Charles F. Prather, District Forester of the Kentucky Division of Forestry's Morehead office. Orders are now being processed and deliveries are expected to begin on March 15.

This year, we expect to have a good supply of black locust and yellow poplar this year. We will also have a good supply of white oak, scotch and Virginia pine, yellow poplar, white ash, white oak, cherrybark oak, and sycamore. Due to a poor seed year, there is a low supply of yellow poplar this year. All seedlings are $10 per thousand with the exception of black walnut and scotch pine which are $15 per thousand.

In addition to the seedlings, a limited supply of cuttings of black locust, yellow poplar and superior conwood will be available. They will sell for $20 per thousand.

Order forms may be obtained from the Kentucky Division of Forestry personnel, Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service and ASCS offices. The minimum order is $500 trees of one species. All orders should be in multiples of 500.

It may be possible to obtain cost-sharing assistance for tree planting. The cost-share rate has been increased from $20 to $24 per acre. You can obtain the latest information on this from your county ASCS office.

Prevented Planting Of Corn Provision

There have been numerous inquiries from producers affected by the corn blight in 1970 regarding applicability of the prevented planting provision of the ASCS Program. Paul Fuqua, Chairman of the Kentucky ASCS Committee and the Secretary of Agriculture has determined all counties in Kentucky were seriously affected by the corn blight in 1970. The prevented planting credit will be available in 1971. Each individual producer will be required to file a written request with his ASCS Committee. The request will be effective for 1971 when approved by the Committee.

This provision will enable many of our producers who are unable to obtain a sufficient supply blight resistant corn seed to participate in the feed grain set aside program, receive payment, and preserve their feed grain base.

Producers having further questions should contact their local ASCS County Office.
