

Nursing Home News

The home got him fixed up, and a couple of old friends, Helen and Bobby Foshell had been around to see him that day. "The Price" is a full-time nurse made their regular trip Sunday.

Leonard Patton of Bourbon County was around to see friends; said he wanted to see Miss Corrida Bell; said he had gone to school to help. He wore an I-176 Railroad button; said he worked for the company more than forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Woodall and two boys of Paris came Sunday to see Billy's mother, Mrs. Gertrude Woodall.

Herman Coyner hasn't been out for several weeks, but he certainly can and does have communications with others. His grandson, Donnie Selvaire, of the U.S. Navy who is on a ten-day leave came. He has been at Great Lakes but is going to Memphis, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sellers of Hartford, Ohio, Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Jess Denigan of Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Quilten Wieman and Miss Blanche Wieman came to see Mrs. Wieman's mother, Mrs. U. M. Wieman. They say Louise Wieman is a fine teacher. Miss Wieman, Quilten's aunt, is a retired teacher, but at present is tutoring modern math.

Margaret Brown said she had a pleasant surprise when she got up Sunday. Her son Carlos of Cincinnati was asleep on the couch.

Barbara Griffin is doing right well as a social worker. She, Herman Coyner, Orville Howard and Landon Stewart are having a few checker games.

Mrs. Philip Oite and Stewart Oite were around Sunday to see Stewart's uncle Landon Stewart. Tony Brown was around to see good use of a wheel chair. He said some of the "birds" at

"Hippie Days" will last too long, for now also see that some of the boys are cutting their hair a little shorter.

Mrs. Dan Wells of Tampa, Fla., visited her mother-in-law, Mrs. Claudia Wells. She's the grandmother of one of Mrs. Wells' new great-grandsons but looks like a teen-ager. No joke!

Uncle Tom Jackson says with all this bad weather he's never had one fall yet. (He hasn't been out).

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Lawrence of Kettering, Ohio visited Ruby's father, Roy Snapp. They had been to visit Ruby's brother, Joe who had had a bad heart attack. James said he played on C.H.S.'s only undefeated football team in 1925. Ruby and James had a little chat with Herman Coyner too.

Mrs. Mac Moreland really had the company. Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper and daughter of Xenia, Ohio, Mrs. Cooper is her niece. Mrs. Rice Cooper of Morehead came too.

Mrs. Nannie Crouch had a birthday Feb. 26. Her daughter, Virginia, daughter of Lexington, son Paul of Bourbon County; son, John and wife
