

Again This Year

Again this year, problems have arisen concerning the Little League and Babe Ruth League... Specifically these are that concession workers and umpires are necessary in order to carry out both baseball programs...

Is It Wise?

Is it being "penny wise and pound foolish" to publish an Educational Values in such simple type that the electorate cannot read the names without a magnifying glass?

LETTERS from our readers

The Carlisle Mercury: Enclosed is a check for $4.20 for the Carlisle Mercury for another year. I enjoy reading the Mercury each week and getting to hear from my friends in and around Carlisle.

Editor, The Carlisle Mercury: One reason reporting from Salgoon has been blighted over the past several years is that the majority of newsmen writing their American media are not citizens.

At one function last month, when President Nixon appeared before the press, part of the press corps refused to stand when he entered the room.

We carry more news about the people of this community than any other publication in the world...

...and you can quote us on that!

THE 10 Year By Russ Melby

Once I wrote something about George Wallace and I've gotten hot flashes from his perpetual campaign headquarters ever since.

When you find an honest magazine salesman like George, you ought to run him for president

Agree Or Not

I Say What I Think by S. C. VanCuren

FRANKFORT—The big question after Tuesday is can the Republican sweep political history and win the governor's office for a successor?

There are really two people today who do not take the trouble to vote and it seems to us that making the job harder is self-defeating.

MERCURY VAPOURS

By Warren R. Fisher

What with both Richmond, Va. newspapers, the editor of mine has difficulty in finding little out-of-the-way blips, but he has a trick.

The third annual VFW horse show, "Kentucky's Finest One Night Show," will be held June 5, at the local athletic field, at 7:30 p.m.

Through the efforts of Postmaster George D. Scott, John Parker Ross and Rev. Harry Alexander and other interested persons, a twilight baseball league has been organized in Carlisle, with four teams and a schedule of 30 games this summer.

Among the graduates from Nicholas County this year are the following: Carlisle and Nicholas County young people, Joe Frank Conroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Conroy, University of Kentucky.
