

Agree Or Not

I Say What I Think

By S. C. VanCuren

FRANKFORT—Regardless of what the candidates have said about not increasing taxes during the gubernatorial campaign, the 1972 Legislature is going to spend a lot of time discussing taxes, and all of the discussion won't be on repeal of the sales tax on take-home groceries.

First off, both of the major party candidates have promised to ask the legislature to levy a severance tax. They differ on the nature of the tax to be levied. Republican Tom Emerton has promised to ask for a levy on coal, oil and gas while Democrat Wendell Ford wants it on coal only. Neither has said how much, but both generally agree that it should be a percentage of the sale price.

How about sand, limestone, clay and all the other natural resources mined in Kentucky? It is not clear, but it would be a fair guess to levy a tax on coal only. If the state needs revenue, why pass on to others? It is just to penalize coal, oil and gas? Why not levy a tax on coal only. If the state needs revenue, why pass on to others? It is just to penalize coal, oil and gas? Why not levy a tax on coal only. If the state needs revenue, why pass on to others? It is just to penalize coal, oil and gas? Why not levy a tax on coal only.

Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

How and where the months go so quickly, I'll never know. Here it is time to start thinking and planning your Christmas menu. However, if the makings are not out, and too, be thinking about the Thanksgiving dinner.

In the meantime here is an old-fashioned dessert you might like to make. It is easy and later on I'll give you a recipe, I say practice because it is not so simple to get it just right.

Catfish placed at Grayson

Almost 40,000 three inch channel catfish have been placed in Grayson Reservoir, near Crayson, Ky., and an additional 60,000 are to be added in the next few days. Charles Powers, director of the Division of Fisheries, has announced that in addition, 5,000 shellecrackers, two inches in size, also have been added to this lake.

During the early fall, hovers more money in the bargain with new rates. You can already hear the Farm Bureau crying out in pain at the mere mention of increasing the tax on cigarettes. Kentucky has one of the lowest rates in the nation of a penny a pack will get the state about $4 million additional revenue in a year. This tax has no effect on growing tobacco in Kentucky, for this is the soil and climate for it. Whereas, elsewhere, it is. Besides, most Kentucky tobacco is consumed outside the state. The tax shouldn't be on the farmer but the consumer.

Nicholas wins first game since 1968

By Rob Lane

THEY FINALLY DID IT! It was a long wait, but the Nicholas County Bluejackets claimed their first victory since 1968, over MMI Friday afternoon, breaking the disturbing record of 38 consecutive losses.

Just as the 14-12 score indicated, it was no easy thing to do. Most Jackets and Jackets fans will agree that a much better game could have been played.

At the onset of the game it looked as though the Jackets were ready to carry home a victory. Roger Livingston pushed through the middle and made some impressive gains. Nicholas County came within five yards of scoring, only to fumble the ball and lose it to Millerburg, but the Jackets held MMI back and forced them to punt.

Just before the quarter's end, Dennis Berry made a spectacular run around right end for a touchdown, only to be called back on a Nicholas penalty for clipping.

By the second quarter, the Jackets weren't too sure at all if they would carry home a victory. Roger Livingston ran through the middle for a 15 yard gain but fumbled on the next play. The ball to MMI. Again Nicholas County pushed to their four yard line and MMI set up a brick wall defensive line that wouldn't let the Jackets through. They lost the ball on downs.

The third quarter was Nicholas County's setup for its first touchdown. The two teams made an impressive gains during the third quarter until Ken Livingston ran a 29 yard touchdown pass to Dennis Berry on their way to a touchdown. A Berry made a spectacular run of four yards by Roger Livingston brought the Jackets to the three yard line. Quarterback Joe Wilson pushed through for the touchdown, only to be called back on a Nicholas penalty for clipping.

The extra point was good. The Jackets weren't too sure at all if they would carry home a victory. Roger Livingston ran through the middle for a 15 yard gain but fumbled on the next play. The ball to MMI. Again Nicholas County pushed to their four yard line and MMI set up a brick wall defensive line that wouldn't let the Jackets through. They lost the ball on downs.

lower prices on their merchandise. This means that either of two ways. Merchants can lower the price of their goods, or they can pass the cost of the wage-price freeze on to the consumer. If they choose the latter, they will be raising the price of their goods.

If retailers adopt the latter method of passing on the wage-price freeze, they must pass it on to the consumer in full. If they do not, they are in violation of the law.

A-Yes. Retail outlets may discount trading stamps if they pass on the value of the stamps to their customers in the form of a cash refund.

Q-My local supermarket has just discontinued its policy of giving out trading stamps. Can they do this during the freeze?

A-Yes. Retail outlets may discount trading stamps if they pass on the value of the stamps to their customers in the form of a cash refund.
