ficient, honest and progressive administration which is basic if we are to move Kentucky forward in the crucial years ahead."

Ronald Mazzoli, Congressman from the Third District, talking about Ford, Carroll and the entire ticket, said "they will fight for the rights of the people of Kentucky."

Mazzoli continued, "The real issue in every election is people.

We owe it to ourselves and to all the people of Kentucky to elect Wendell Ford, Julian Carroll and all our fine Democratic candidates."

Second District Congressman William Natcher called on Kentucky voters for an overwhelming victory Nov. 2, citing the experience of all nine candidates on the Democratic slate.

Joint meet at Dorseyville Center

The joint meeting of low-income members from Fleming, Robertson and Nicholas Counties will be held Friday, Oct. 8 at 2 p.m. at the Dorseyville Center.

At this joint meeting one member and an alternate will be elected to serve on the Emergency Food and Medical Policy Advisory committee of L.V.C.A.P.

The eight county area of Licking Valley Community Action Program has been divided into four areas. To achieve an equal amount of low income population in each of the four areas, Nicholas County was divided. All persons living north of an imaginary line roughly paralleling Ky. routes 392, 1344, Goose Creek Pike, Cassidy Road and Maple Grove Road vote with the residents of Fleming and Robertson Counties. The remainder of Nicholas County votes with Montgomery County.

Basically, the Policy Advisory Committee will determine priorities for the Emergency Foods and Medical Program, and engage in planning and setting goals.

The Montgomery-Nicholas County election date will be set later. Watch for date.

Emberton-Host rally is set on Oct. 11

Maxwell Burden, Nicholas County chairman for the Emberton-Host campaign for governor and lieutenant governor, today invited all supporters of Tom Emberton and James Host to attend what he described as a "major rally" at Lexington's Red Mile Trotting Track on Monday, Oct. 11

He said the voters from 24 counties have been invited to attend the rally.

"We invite everyone in Nicholas County to come out and shake hands with Tom Emberton and Jim Host," Burden said, adding that the people are being "invited to enjoy the fun and fellowship of the rally, which will include food, rides for the children and entertainment by the Blackwood Family Singers."

Burden said the rally would begin at 4 p.m., with Gov. Louie B. Nunn as the principal speaker.

"All the proceeds from ticket sales in our county will be used to finance our local campaign," Burden said.

Tickets in the county may be obtained by calling Mrs. Gayle Bowen, Mrs. Jake Earlywine or Roberta's Beauty Shop.

The offices of Drs. Riggs and Sparks will be closed Monday and Tuesday Oct. 11 and 12
