Kay's Kitchen

It originally came from Alabama, then to me as Rowle's Pound Cake, 1 pound box of confectionery sugar, 2 eggs, 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 teaspoons brandy, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 cup white and egg one at a time beating after each one. Fill confectionery sugar box with unsifted cake flour and add alternately with eggs. Bake 1 hour and 15 minutes in greased Bundt pan or angel food cake pan. This is the basic recipe. You may add 1 cup chopped pecans and raisins; sliced almonds and dried cranberries. The latter is nice at Christmas time. Sprinkle confectionery sugar on top when turned out on cake plate.

Questions And Answers On Wage And Price Freeze

This column of questions and answers on the Wage and Price Freeze is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service. The column answers questions and is frequently asked about the Wage and Price Freeze announced most recently about the Wage and Price Freeze announced Aug. 15 by President Nixon.
Q-How did the Internal Revenue Service get involved in answering questions about the Wage-Price Freeze?
A-The Internal Revenue Service undertook the assignment at the request of the Office of Emergency Preparedness which is the operating arm of the new Wage-Price program. Utilizing its nationwide taxpayer assistance network, the IRS receives, analyzes and investigates complaints and answers questions at 360 of its offices throughout the country.
Q-What does the IRS do after it receives a complaint of a Wage-Price Freeze violation?
A-The IRS will acknowledge the complaint and, if there is a reasonable basis for concluding that a violation may exist, it may refer the alleged offender to obtain voluntary compliance with the Presidential order or conduct further investigation. The IRS office will report to the Office of Emergency Preparedness when further action is required. Actual prosecutions are the responsibility of the Justice Department.
Q-Is the violation of the Wage-Price Freeze a crime?
A-No, although the IRS prefers that complaints be written to make reference to the Office of Emergency Preparedness and to establish whether there is any pattern of problems in a particular area. All complaints are recorded, analyzed and investigated.
Q-I'm promoted despite the Freeze?
A-Yes, annual promotions to established positions with greater responsibilities are allowed, as well as increases in apprentice's and learner's rates under programs set up before the Freeze. Merit and longevity increases are not permitted during the Freeze. Violate the Freeze?
A-The Justice Department may seek an injunction to stop an individual or business from violating the Presidential order. Failure to comply with the injunction may place the violator in contempt of court and result in a fine or imprisonment or both, or an escalating daily basis.
Q-My college announced last spring that it would raise tuition for the fall semester. Is this increase covered by the Freeze?
A-No, increases in tuition rates announced before Aug. 15 may still take place, even though they do go into effect until September, because commitments and, in many cases, payments have already been made.
Q-My landlord sent me a notice the first week of August that my rent was to be increased as of Sept. 1. Do I have to pay the increase?
A-No, rents on apartments and houses cannot be raised during the Freeze period. Even if an agreement had been signed before Aug. 15 and scheduled to go into effect after the 15th, the increase would not be allowed.
Q-I'm moving into a new apartment. How can I tell if my landlord is over-charging me rent and violating the Freeze?
A-Check the rent charged for comparable apartments in the immediate area. The rent you pay cannot be any higher.
