KHI Commits $2.5 Million For Clean-Up
Members of Kentucky Highway Industries (KHI) to date have committed approximately $2.5 million to cleaning up air and water at quarries and asphalt plants. The final cost is expected to approach $6 million.
Cost figures were given in a progress report issued in connection with observance of National Highway Week (Sept. 19-25) by Buckner Hinkle, Paris contractor who is coordinator of the KHI public affairs committee.
Gov. Louie B. Nunn expressed pleasure.
"We in the state government, and I in particular, appreciate the positive, no-nonsense approach of the Kentucky highway industries to the environmental issue," the gov-

Voices from yesterday's Elders of Presbyterian Church

In 1852 when the church had 115 members a ten-day protracted meeting was held. The pastor was assisted by Dr. E.O. Coover in the dedicated Home Mission Work—the mountains of Kentucky for whom Guernant Presbyterians later named. There were 15 baptisms. I reclaimed, 2 received from Presbyterian churches, 3 received from a Methodist Church, and professed of faith, 14 or 15 in all.
In one two-weeks meeting 24 new members were received, at the 19th century drew to a close almost every meeting of the season recorded the reception of new members. The peak membership was reached around March 1899 when 240 members were reported to Presbytery.

Meetings were held frequently.
II. On March 23, 1903 the last religious services were held in the old building and "the communion was participated in by a large

Gas raise Nov. 1, if freeze lifted

A city ordinance was passed Monday night to raise the City's gas rates to its customers effective Nov. 1.
The increase will go into effect after the wage-price freeze or after an exemption can be obtained whichever comes first.
The increase amounts to 10 cents on the present minimum charge of $2.00, and is equal to a 9% total increase.

Columbia Gas Co. raised its charges to the City in April and has increased its rate several times since 1951 when the gas system was installed. Since then, a 20 year period, this is the first time that the city has passed the cost down to the consumer. The ordinance is printed in its entirety in today's Mercury.
Other business, City Council voted to donate $100 to the Recreation Council to help defray immediate operating expenses. The Recreation Council has no income, other than donations, except when tournaments are played on the Recreation field. It is presently expecting a grant from the Federal government to improve the facilities at the park.
A few citizens still haven't cut their weeds on their property, however, the majority have cut, operated and done so. Those who have not done so, have been reminded again by the Police Department.

City Operations Manager Oliver Vice was given permission to order a load of salt, and to check prices on a salt spreader by next meeting.

A motion was passed to accept a corrected deed from Mr. and Mrs. Russell Alexander for a tract of land in Alexander Subdivision on which a City water tank is located.

Members of the Auxiliary Police Department were granted pay for work done in relieving the regular police on Labor Day. The Auxiliary Force is still being organized and there are plans to charter the group soon. A meeting of the Auxiliary Force will be held later this week.
Building permits were granted to Elmer Dampier to repair a sidewalk in front of Doc Jay's Auto Parts and to build a utility building behind his home on Sycamore Hill.

error said, "The organizations in Kentucky Highway Industries are demonstrating that a wholesome balance can be achieved between the industrial expansion Kentucky needs and protection of our natural heritage we in Kentucky want."
"I congratulate you. Pointing out KHI is ahead of the highway construction industries in all other states in co-operating with federal and state anti-pollution agencies. Hinkle released contents of a letter of commendation from R. R. Barclay, mayor, deputy administrator of the U. S. Department of Transportation.
