It is a great misfortune neither to have enough wit to talk well nor enough judgment to be silent—La Bruyere.

Mrs. Vada Pelphrey and Lizette Bauffe both had a birthday on the same day, Vada went to her daughter, Elizabeth Swartz's, her daughter, Dorothy of Aberdeen, was present. There were presents, ice cream and cake in the afternoon. Her daughters, Wanda and Francis Irwin and Mrs. Elizabeth Neal came and stayed in the fun.

Mrs. Allen's good niece, Louise Smith, never comes empty handed. She came and brought her a beautiful pink geranium. It's plastic, but one has to feel it to make sure it isn't real.

Nancy Crouch was around and had a good looking shirt on. He took Landon Stewart's picture. He was from his nephew, Harry Ott of Millersburg.

Margaret Brumagen's son, Carlos of Cincinnati has been in Lady of Mercy Hospital several days, but is improving. He has a telephone right by his bed and calls his mother every other night. Margaret and her daughter, Rachel, drove down to see him last week.

You just can't keep a good man down. Tony Dotson was in bed a couple of days, but now he's sailing right along in that wheelchair.

He says he's better looking in it. Names are confusing. Mrs. Ethel McCarty has so many girls and they are all faithful to her. There's Wanda who lives in Sharnburg and Wilma who lives in Texas; just a "little" difference in distance is all Mrs. McCarty says all the pretty things she owns she gets from her "youngins".

Ollie Finch had a birthday April 18. He is 92, and his foxgloving friends helped him celebrate. Dr. Pittenger of Paris, hosted a birthday dinner at a local restaurant in his honor. Among those attending were Fred Harris, Pete Reid, Chad Whitaker, Roy Blount, George Kokenedoffer, Herb McClanahan, Earl Finch and Roger Womack.

Old Conyers said the only news she knew was that they were having a revival at the Wesley Church. She just had to keep up with everything. So many nice things are done for the residents, she found out that Miss Earl Botta made part of the Easter favors. She was so modest to put her name on them. With all the would-be.

Mrs. Mary Rogers is really taking it easy. Her daughter, Alma Anderson, brought her a tv. Mrs. Robert Plank, her sister, and niece Annabell of Paris, and sister, Mrs. Herbert Bradley and daughter, Judy came from Bath County.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. McCarty's daughter, Maxine Smoot, was a visitor.

J.W. Parker is a new resident of the home. He came from the local hospital.

At this writing Mrs. Sara Williams remains in the local hospital. Mrs. Gladis Wells, like all of us, is proud of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Both great-grandchildren are named Dan Wells. One lives here, and one in Florida.

Spelling bee

An old-fashioned spelling bee was held recently at the Harrison County High School under the direction of Mrs. Wallace Hicks, left. Emerging as top spellers were Toni Grayson, Thirgrade, and Randy Blount, 8th grade. They will receive medals at awards day Monday afternoon at the school year.

Johnson came from Mt. Olivet to see Oscar Johnson.

Life is 10 percent what you make it, and 90 percent how you take it.

Mrs. Myrtle Lovitt's brother-in-law, C.D. Thompson, visited recently.

BACK IN '83—George M. Chinn, left, director of the Kentucky Historical Society, and Marion J. O'Donoghue, mutual secretary of the Kentucky Racing Commission, recall the 1883 Kentucky Derby during recent commemoration at the Old State House in Frankfort. Chinn holds the winner's plaque presented to his grandparents, Chinn and Margaret, of Harrodsburg, who owned the colt, Leonatus. O'Donoghue's father rode the 3-year-old in photo. (Karen Tan Photo)

be used much till they are seasoned—Oliver Wendell Holmes

Mrs. Toomey's good sister, Mrs. Madley brought her four pretty new dust coats. Mrs. Toomey is never seen without one.

George and Turner Donahue were glad to see their sister, Alva Green, and niece Mrs. Hattie Snapp, and her 15-year-old daughter. Then Mrs. and Mrs. Toomey, both of Paris, came to see Mrs. How's father, George.

Mrs. Lenora George was glad to see her good brothers, James and Clarence Scott on Sunday.

Helen and Clay Myers took a little spin and went to Mt. Sterling shopping Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Lisa Ockerman and her brother, Joe Blount, were glad to be visited Sunday by their sister, Mrs. Elbert Miron, and her daughter, Fermania of Xenia, Ohio. The Mirones said they enjoyed their dinner in the dining room.

Dr. Evans Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, had charge of the weekly worship service on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Jeff Pittman was at the piano. Dr. Brown read from Matthew 15, and talked about the four seasons and the beauty of each.

'Be All U Can Be' theme of annual homemakers meet

"Be All U Can Be" was the theme of the 26th annual meeting of the Nicholas County Extension Homemakers Association held at the First Christian Church, Mrs. Reese Smoot, outgoing president, presided. Following the luncheon, a short business session was held. Mrs. Otis Martin, county president, recognized 44 members who had perfect attendance at the club meetings this past year.

The East Union Club had the largest percentage of increase in members this year. The Ellenville Club received the award for the largest number of new members. The Working Girls Club and the Ellenville Club tied, each having the same number of members 39 years and under. Five clubs did not lose any members last year.

Mrs. Reese Smoot, county president; Mrs. Otis Martin, vice president; J.K. Goomber, guest speaker.
