Regent honored at Morehead

Dr. J.W. Cartmell, prominent Mayaville surgeon and chairman of the Morehead State University Board of Regents, stands in the foreground of the newly-named "William H. Cartmell Hall," a 10-story, residence hall for men, completed in 1969 at a cost of $2.7 million, the structure has space for nearly 500 residents. It was named in honor of Dr. Cartmell's almost 17 years of service on the Board of Regents and for his civic and professional contributions to Northeastern Kentucky. He has served longer on the MSU board than any other person.

Georgetown defeats

Wilson kept for the first down on the Georgetown 15. Livingston made consecutive runs of three and five yards. Wilson picked up four yards for a "first and five" on the five yard line. Dennis Berry took the ball to the one on the next play. Joe Wilson, quarterback, sneaked for the touchdown. However, the touchdown was nullified by an "aiding the runner penalty".

The officials claimed that Wilson had been pushed across the goal line by his team mates. When the referee next they might opt for a "downfield blocking" This freckle penalty seemed to take the life out of the Jackets as the next two plays resulted in fumbles with Georgetown covering the last one.

The Jackets had the next series of downs and it looked as if Georgetown was forced to punt. Georgetown made the rather silly choice of going for the first down on a fake punt, but Fryman faked this "circus attempt" with a solid tackle on the Georgetown 16 yard line.

Nicholas County took over and was "ready to roll" as Smoot carried on first down to the eight yard line. Berry picked up the first down carrying to the right. On the next play Berry eluded over the goal line for the Bluejackets' first score of the year.

Berry's running attempt for the extra point was unsuccessful, making the score Georgetown 14, Jackets 6.

Georgetown returned Anderson's kick-off 10 yards to their 40. On second down, Berry drove a brilliant 20 yard run off tackle and appeared to be "gone" when Livingston stopped him with a driving tackle. McIntyre picked up six yards on the next play. Jerry Jones stopped McIntyre cold for no gain on second down. With three and four situation, Duane Jackson skirted right for the first down to the Bluejackets' 40.

Georgetown advanced to the 20 on a delay of game penalty called when the Jackets had a line trouble during a replacement on the field in time. On third down Livingston had an option play around left end down to the Bluejacket five. The Jacket line put on a hokey rush on the next play, causing Dunn to bobble kick-out to Duane Jackson. Jackson recovered however and made a nice move. Defensive back Joe Wilson to pick off the score. Williams' kick-off for the extra point made the score 21-6 in favor of the Bluejackets.

From this point on Jacket Coach Paul Hampton elected to close out the game with his younger players giving them some valuable playing experience. The game ended 21-6, not a bad performance for the young Bluejackets in their season opener. Next week the Bluejackets take on region title contender Fleming County at Flemingsburg.
