Give an Electric Gift for Christmas!

Christmas is one time of the year when true feelings of love and friendship are expressed. Why not express your feelings with a practical, electric gift? If you want that special someone to enjoy your gift for a long time to come, you can't go wrong when you buy "electrically."

Check this list with yours: electric razor, electric blanket, electric toothbrush, blender, decorator clock, power tools, portable radio or TV, portable hairdryer. There are many more gift ideas for electrical items, but you get the idea. An electrical gift says so much more to the person you care for.

If you want to present a gift that makes life easier and more enjoyable - think electric. Clean, safe, endless electric power does so much to make our living better. Why not share it with someone!

Electricity - the cleanest energy you can use.
