

The Carlisle Mercury

THE MERCURY
289-
2464

105th year
Number 7

Carlisle, Kentucky 40311

Single Copy 15¢

(12 Pages) Thursday, Feb. 17, 1972

They don't need legs...they need your support!
Monday, Feb. 21, at 8 p.m.

The starting five for the fatal clash between the Red Heads and Nicholas County coaching staff and faculty composed of Tom Mercante, David McMillen, Gary Clark, Paul Hampton, Jim Brumage, Mickey Boyz, Clint Stanford, Billy K. Anderson, Jim Chadwell, Harry Varner, Charles Wilson, E.G. Jones and Jassard Coombes, will get underway at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 21, at the Nicholas County High School gym. (A comment heard at the Mercury office was, "You wouldn't have cut off their legs, if they'd been the two best Little League teams will meet. All proceeds from the game will go to the Nicholas County Recreation Park. Tickets may be purchased at Hopkins Drug Store and the First National Bank. Adult tickets at the door on Monday night will be $2.—Mercury file

1
7

F
E
B

1
7

A wreck from either side

Earn Garrett Jr., 21, was killed instantly Friday night when his sports car collided with a tractor-trailer on Ky. 36. Garrett was headed west when his car hit the tractor-trailer, driven by Fred Jones, 38, Route 3, Garrett's car was pushed into the driveway entrance of Taylor Mother's home. He was pinned in his car for about one and one-half hours. Jones escaped with minor bruises. Both the Garrett car and the tractor-trailer were completely demolished, according to Carlisle Police Chief Allen Earlywine.

The tractor-trailer was pulling a bulldozer and a backhoe. The impact separated the equipment from the tractor-trailer.

Garrett is survived by his wife, Janice, and a daughter, Leona. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earn Garrett Sr. of Carlisle. He was an employee of Blue Grass Knitting Co.

Top picture shows the side of the car in which Earn Garrett Jr., Carlisle Route 1, lost his life about 5:30 p.m. Friday when he turned, sideways in front of an on-coming tractor towing a backhoe and a bulldozer. The impact was such as to separate the low-boy from the tractor. Driver of the tractor-trailer was Fred Jones, Carlisle Route 3, who suffered several bruises.—Mercury file

Tree growth is checked by forester

Charles A. Foster, Forester for the U.S. Soil Conservation station at Lexington, last week was on the farm of Harold Letton located on the Carpenter Pike, checking the growth of a 120-year-old Black Walnut and Ash. Some of the trees had made satisfactory growth while others had not done too well. The plantation was planted several years ago. —Mercury file

Doyle announces 'Farm Appreciation Week'

The week of Feb. 21 will be "Farm Appreciation Week" here and throughout the state, according to an announcement made by county Farm Bureau president, W.O. Doyle.

President Doyle said a proclamation has been signed by Governor Wendell Ford for the statewide observance, and that a separate proclamation has been issued by County Judge Floyd Clark to mark the occasion locally. The local proclamation cites Farm Bureau's economic, social and educational services, and points out that more than 450 farm and rural families here have joined the organization "to derive the benefits of membership and to accomplish together that which they cannot accomplish as individuals."

Farm Bureau Appreciation Week, according to president Doyle, is a traditional observance designed to focus public attention on the organization's accomplishments and objectives. He said he has been encouraged by local responses to Farm Bureau's activities and programs, and

Continued on page 12

Local Shrine sponsors home missions

Outstanding teenagers

Nicholas County High School students have been selected as Outstanding Teenagers of America for 1972, according to E.G. Jones, principal.

Selection for the Outstanding Teenagers awards program automatically qualifies these students for further state, regional, and national honors and scholarships totaling $7,000. Local nominees are Patricia Ockerman, Horace Marshall, Melicent Sagg, Sandra Reid.

Nominated by their principals, the Outstanding Teenagers of America are chosen from individual schools across the country for excellence in community service and academic achievement. The local students will now vie for the Outstanding Teenager of the Year trophy to be presented by the state's governor. Similar trophies will be presented to winners in other states. The state winners are selected by the Outstanding Teenager Awards Selection Committee, in cooperation with the Board of Advisors.

The 50 state winners will be eligible for awards totaling $7,000. One boy and one girl will be chosen for national scholarships of $1,000 each to be used at the college or university of their choice. 10 regional winners will also be selected from the remaining state winners to receive $500 regional scholarships.

Little League net

In local midgeet basketball action, the league-leading Demons will meet the top team in the Paris Y.M.C.A. midgeet league on Thursday, Feb. 24 at 7 p.m. at the Carlisle Elementary gym.

The second game will be between the second-place Hornets and the second-ranked Paris league team.

The Rev. John T. Bender, C.P., will be the missionary to give the Home Mission program sponsored by the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The theme of the Mission will be "Christ in the home—a plan for Christian renewal."

The Rev. Herman B. Kamlage, Administrator, said the purpose of a Mission is like that of the Protestant Revival, to revive and revitalize our Christian commitment, to get ourselves to do some serious thinking and put ourselves into "high gear" again where Christ is concerned.

The "Christ in the home" program objectives are first, to provide education in the Faith. Father Bender stated that some people are confused by the changes going on in the Church today; others are

Continued on page 12

Director named at ASCS office

Harvey Wagoner, chairman of the Nicholas County ASC Committee has announced the appointment of a director of the ASCS office in Carlisle. He is Thomas Michael McCann, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McCann of Nicholasville, formerly of Carlisle.

Mr. McCann, "Mike" is filling the vacancy left by the retirement of Alma Atkinson. He is a 1970 graduate of Eastern Kentucky University, joining ASCS in September of 1970. After training for a year, he was appointed acting director for the Harlan County office in October of 1971. He was employed there until his transfer to Nicholas County. He is residing at Carlisle Route 1, with his wife, Jennifer, and daughter, Alyson.

The Rev. Rex

Sexton discusses utility services

G.W. Sexton appeared at City Council Monday night to discuss utility services being provided by the City to his trailer court on Ky. 36.

Council reiterated its intention to install water meters at each trailer site and to require Sexton to maintain the utility lines. These provisions are in line with service requirements to other areas to which the City provides utilities. The City agreed to reimburse Sexton for the meter which he originally purchased. Sexton presently has 16 trailers on the 24 site court he started.

Council voted 3-1 to purchase gasoline from the four local stations starting March 1 on a six-month trial basis. The four stations within the City are Hunt's, Simons, Rex and Paul's and Green's. Clifton Wagoner voted against the motion.

Oliver Vice, Operations Manager, was instructed to schedule a day's work for the City employees each morning before starting his day. Some employees aren't starting on time, and some aren't planning their work to be advantageous, it was stated. Police Chief Allen Earlywine

Continued on page 12