The Nicholas County Homemakers modified/rerred garments the members made during a tailoring workshop conducted thru the Nicholas County Extension Service. The fashion review was held at the Nicholas County Elementary school Jan. 7.

Home Economics Extension tailoring workshop completed

The Nicholas County Home Economics Extension Service has recently completed a tailoring workshop. The objectives of the workshop were to provide an opportunity for making a coat or suit to teach good standards of selection; workmanship and fit for tailored garments; and to develop an appreciation for tailored garments that are attractive and well made.

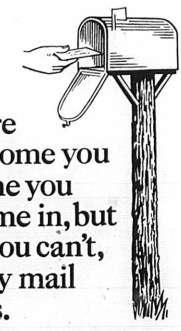

Fourth meeting—Cutting the garments. Fifth meeting—Marking of fabric. Sixth through 12th meetings—Fitting and construction techniques, which included pressing, insertion of underlining, buttonholes and pockets, interfacing, sleeves, collars, zippers, lining, hem, fasteners etc.
