

AN (KYN.) INTERVIEW

Garry Pratt, a West Coast newspaper columnist, reports an... far less government interference with the individual and far more respect for government leaders.

DOWN MEMORY-LANE

And by now maybe it has occurred to you, why would an association of direct mail advertisers institute such a program? Their answers go like this: "The desire of mailers to reduce their costs by not sending material to people who oppose receiving it and are, therefore, poor prospects for the sale of their goods is being advertised by this method. There is also the objective of doing something of a positive nature to help prevent restrictive legislation.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

W.L.H.I. Mass, News-Tribune: "It's about police brutality. The head of the Ohio State Highway Patrol reports that in 1970, all of the better, however, were expended on the tariff. Not a shot was fired. Saturday a living target during the year. 'We're proud of that record,' says McIntyre. 'I am proud of the fact that we have never had a fatality in our jurisdiction.'"

Bluejackets win

By Ron Lane The Nicholas County Bluejackets snuffed a five game losing streak last Friday night as they put the heat on Rowan County in an exciting overtime with a final score of 60-57.

The victory came after a loss to Morgan County, 57-49 earlier in the week, and gave the Jackets a 7-7 record.

In first quarter action, the Jackets and the Rowan County Vikings were tied 10-10, but Nicholas County pulled out with a five-point lead at halftime, 25-20. The Vikings remained in the lead the third quarter 38-35, but it was the neck and neck at the end of the fourth quarter, 54-54.

No sooner than the overtime hour had gone off, Rowan County took the tip off, and worked down the court for a field goal. Nicholas County fouled and gave the Vikings one more point. Then with 24 seconds left to play, Doug Fryman made two field goals. Owen Barnes tipped off with one free throw at the last second. The credit for Nicholas' victory goes to Doug Fryman and Doug Atmos Rex Boyd was a little off on shooting last Friday night. It was a good night on the boards for him. He had 15 rebounds and 10 assists.

Individual scores: Nicholas County: Haron 8, Smart 7, Barnes 9, Fryman 17, Owen 12, Boyd 7. Rowan County: Little 20, Arnett 11, Pagan 20, Class 6. Tomporey night the Jackets will battle Fryan here at Carlisle.
