Ten outstanding men to be honored in Ky.

The Kentucky State Fair traditionally highlights excellence in every aspect of daily life in the Commonwealth. Special recognition during the Fair is given to those young people from throughout the State who have made outstanding contributions to Kentucky. This program of recognition, "Outstanding Young Kentuckian," will honor 10 young people who have distinguished themselves in such areas as academic achievement, exceptional individual talents, athletics, business, community involvement and public service. Sponsored jointly by the State Fair and the Kentucky Jaycees, the program will accept nominations for "Outstanding Young Kentuckians" from any adult, 21 or over. Adults making nominations will remain anonymous. To be eligible for nomination, the young person must be no more than 20 years old by May 1, 1972. The main criterion is that the young person has distinguished himself in some special way. The 10 "Outstanding Young Kentuckians" will be honored at the Chamber of Commerce Luncheon, Aug. 27 Chamber of Commerce Day at the Fair.

Nominations blanks are available through local Jaycee chapters or by written request. Outstanding Young Kentuckians, Kentucky Jaycees, P.O. Box 21354, Louisville, Ky. 40221. All nominations must be made on these official blanks, and must be received at the above address no later than July 15, 1972.

Operating Account remains in red City rehires employees without salary increases

All City employees were rehired Monday night for another year effective July 1, but some received salary increases. Mayor Bill Power explained that the City was unable to give pay increases because the Operating Account in red was absent and Councilman Charles Fay passed his vote. The City employees were told that they would be expected to work from Monday morning until Saturday noon. They will be paid for work after hours in emergency. Oliver Vice was transferred back to the Water Plant and will be required to work one Sunday a month. John Tapp will read meters as he did now, and at other times will help Gayle Vanlandingham instead of working at the Water Plant. Auxiliary and hourly policemen will be paid $1.65 per hour as needed. No overtime will be paid to full-time employees. Cleo Fryman was switched from hourly to full-time payroll at $285 per month. All other employees remained in their present payroll status. Glenn Bowles was hired on a trial basis as policeman starting at $350 per month.

Another motion transferred $5,000 from the Revenue Account to the City Operating Account to help pay the July bills. This motion passed 5-0.

Veach Berry requested that a fire hydrant be installed by the City closer to his home. Mayor Power asked the Water, Sewer and Gas Committee to measure the distance between the hydrant in Arnold Heights and report by the next regular meeting of Council. Blue Grass Regional District dues for the City of $120 were voted to be paid.

Vanlandingham was given permission to purchase six inch sewer pipe and two inch water pipe to be used to supply the utilities to build in Jane Lynn Subdivision.

Application forms mailed to growers Soybean certification deadline is July 15

Kentucky growers of certified soybean seed should turn in their applications for certification by July 15. That reminder comes from Dennis TeKrony, Extension seed specialist at the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture. TeKrony said application forms for soybean certification were mailed to all growers recently. If they have been misplaced extra copies are available from Kentucky Seed Improvement Association office in Lexington or from local county Extension offices.

Varieties which are available for certification in 1972 include Wayne, Calland, Clark 63, Bonus, Cutler, 71, Kent, Custer, Hill, Dyer, York, Dark, Hood, Pickett 71, and Lee 68.

Last year, 10,500 acres of soybeans were certified in Kentucky.

Blue Grass wins first tourney game

Blue Grass Industrials won their first game of the state N.B.C. Baseball Tournament by downing Wicks 6-5.

Blue Grass scored one run in the first on a single by Harold Whitaker. In the second, Blue Grass scored two more runs when Aisbur McCaffey singled, Larry Ramsey walked, Ken Johnson hit a sacrifice fly and Billy Anderson hit a sacrifice fly in the fourth when McCaffey doubled. Ramey tripped and Junior Terrell hit a sacrifice fly. Blue Grass scored its final run in the sixth when Anderson singled in Marion Martin.

Ashbury McCaffey, Ken Johnson, and Billy Anderson collected two hits each for the winners. McCaffey and Johnson pitched all the way to pick up the three hit shut-out. This Sunday, July 16, at Charlepar, Drift will play Lexington Angels and Blue Grass will play the Lexington Pirates.

Local teachers attend workshop

Mrs. Martha Taylor and Mrs. Bonnie Metcalfe, home economists supervising teachers in Nicholas county have completed a two-week Home Economics Education Workshop in Clothing and Textiles at Morehead State University. They were two of seven women who studied the revised Kentucky Vocational High School Home Economics Curriculum Guide which will be used by vocational home economists teachers throughout Kentucky. The class studied recent innovations in both clothing and textiles and prepared teaching aids to be used in their classrooms. New books and teaching aids were purchased by class members. Miss Bettie McClaskey, MSU associate professor of home economics, directed the workshop.

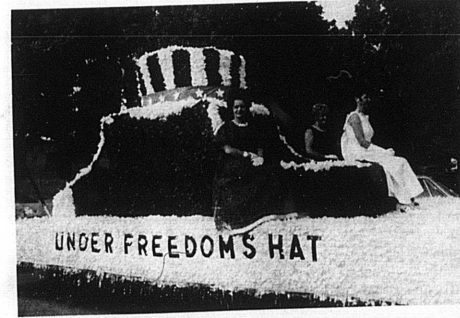

Neighborhood Youth program underway

Terrell Ross, assistant director of Neighborhood Youth Corp., a branch of the Licking Valley Community Action Program, announced Friday that the N.Y.C. program in Nicholas county is now in full swing. Youth of the county, who meet the O.E.O. guidelines, have been employed to work one week. They work entirely for non-profit organizations. For example, the Nicholas County Hospital, Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home, Health Center, schools, public offices, etc. The youth employed are in an age range of 14 to 18 years old. To be employed there must be an intent to return to either grade of high school school with a qualified counselor. Mrs. Joyce Gooding, Flemingsburg, speaking and answering questions. Those employed by N.Y.C. are required to attend these meetings. Subjects open are Family Planning, Budgeting, Job Hunting and Work Habits. Should any of the young people employed need personal counseling, it is available. Citizens of Carlisle and Nicholas county are asked to cooperate and help with this program in any way they can. Mrs. Lucille Williams is Coordinator of N.Y.C. for Nicholas county. Once a week counseling meetings are held at the high

Deadline nears for feed program

The deadline is fast approaching for the completion of the 1972 Feed Grain Program. Harvey Waggoner, chairman, Nicholas county ASC Committee, said today. Mr. Waggoner stated that Monday, July 17, was the final date that any farmer, enrolled in the Feed Grain program, could file an acreage report of crops for 1972. No payments can be made until each farmer enrolled in the program files a report. If you have not filed a report at your county ASCS office, contact them before the July 17, deadline. Waggoner reminds enrolled farmers that no extension to the deadline can be made. If you need any additional information, contact your local ASCS Office.

Winning Float

The Thoroughbred Club of Blue Grass Industrials, Carlisle, was the first place winner in the float contest at the annual Blackberry Festival, held July 1-4. The float theme was "Under Freedom's Hat".
