Wheat farm applications deadline

Farmers still wishing to apply for a new wheat allotment should contact their ASCS county office as soon as possible, Harvey Wagner, Chairman, Nicholas County ASCS Committee said today. Applications for new allotments may be filed until July 1.

An last year, a producer eligible to file an application is one with a farm for which no wheat allotment has been established and for which neither the owner nor the operator has an interest in the wheat allotment on any other farm. Other factors are also involved and it is suggested that interested producers come to the ASCS office for complete details.

Co-operative Vacation Bible School June 26-30

The Carlisle Presbyterian and First Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) will hold a co-operative Vacation Bible School during the week of June 26 through June 30. The school will be conducted at the First Christian Church located in Street. Classes will be made up of four major age groups: pre-kindergarten or nursery, ages 18 months through 3 years; kindergarten, ages 4 and 5 years; primary, ages 6, 7, and 8 years; Junior, 9, 10, and 11 years. Twelve and 13 year olds are welcome to come to the Junior Class. The theme for this year's Bible School is "We Worship God."

Classes begin at 9:00 a.m. and close at 11:30 a.m. each day. All children of the community are invited to attend the school. Mrs. Emma Baker is the director of the school. If you desire transportation to and from school, please contact Mrs. Baker at 249-5265 or Mrs. Robert Sparks at 289-5544.

Nicholas county's role in government spending

To what extent will the Federal government's new spending schedule, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, affect Nicholas county and its taxpayers?

With an outlay of more than $246 billion provided for in the budget for national defense, public health, education, welfare, space research, veterans benefits and other needs, the government will be spending money at the rate of nearly $7,800 every second, throughout the year.

On the basis of local figures and a state-by-state breakdown prepared by the Tax Foundation, a non-profit research organization, it represents expenditures at the rate of $2.01 a day for every man, woman and child in Nicholas county.

For the entire community, the cost per day will be close to $13,000.

That will be its share of the cost of government expenditures, every day of the year, based upon the portion of the overall revenue that comes from the local area.

State by state and county by county, the tax burden varies widely, reflecting differences in income levels and industrial concentrations.

Throughout the United States, the average daily cost under the new budget amounts to $3.32 per capita and, in the East South Central States, to $2.55.

The figures reported by the Tax Foundation represent revisions of Treasury Department statistics, it is pointed out. They were arrived at under a formula that distributes the tax burden on an actual basis, taking into account, for example, the fact that tobacco taxes, which are largely levied in three states, are really borne by smokers in all the states.

A breakdown of the government's spending budget for the fiscal year indicates where the money will be going.

For every $1,000 that a Nicholas county family is paying in taxes, directly or indirectly, some $368 of it will be allocated to national defense.

Next will be the portion going for social security, welfare and other benefits of that kind, $327. Third largest will be interest on the national debt, $99, followed by health, $85, and transportation and commerce, $54.

Bettors' loss is state' gain

By Dave Thompson

If you placed the right win, place or show bets in the 1972 Kentucky Derby, but still haven't cashed in your tickets, you're not alone.

Charcell Downs' pari-mutuel official Kenneth Coyte says 4550 tickets were still uncashed at the close of this year's spring meeting. That figure includes only $2, $5 and $10 tickets, but not other priced tokens, such as the 21 uncashed $50 win tickets on Riva Ridge.

Derby Day is the annual peak in uncashed tickets for Churchill Downs, but the problem exists year-round at every track in Kentucky and around the nation.

Since 1948, Kentucky tracks have been keeping all money for uncashed tickets for two years and then turning it over to the state Revenue Department. The first such funds were handed over in 1948.

A total of $1,224,971.01 from uncashed pari-mutuel tickets has been passed on to the state in the past 26 years, according to Revenue officials.

In its 33rd biennial report to the General Assembly this year, the Kentucky Racing Commission said $78,117 in uncashed tickets was left at the end of 1970's 221 racing days.

Although three of the state's five tracks were still uncashed at the close of this year's spring meeting, that figure includes only $2, $5 and $10 tickets, but not other priced tokens, such as the 21 uncashed $50 win tickets on Riva Ridge.

Mercury wins!

The Carlisle Mercury captured nine awards at the annual Kentucky Press Association meeting held at Cumberland Falls State Park, June 15-17.

A first-place plaque was received for Best Woman's Page for the year 1971 in Division I which comprises weekly newspapers under 3,000 circulation.

In the General Excellence category of the contest, The Carlisle Mercury received a second-place certificate. The judges, who were Indiana newspaper publishers, commented that the Mercury was "a close contender for first place, above lot of care, good woman's page."

Other certificates received were: Locally Written Column (Variety of subjects)—Mercury Vignette, second; Best From Page—third; Editorial Page—honorable mention; Excellence in Typography—third; Grocery Advertising—third; Classified Advertising—third; and Special Edition—third.

Who will it be?

Who will be "Miss Fleming-Mason Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation of 1972?"

Some pretty daughter of one of the 10,850 members of the cooperative is destined to receive that honor the night of July 24 and may be now making the decision to take the first step.

That first step is filling out an official entry blank.

The requirements are simple. All contestants must be unmarried, between the ages of 16 and 21, her family a member of a Fleming-Mason RECC; not a employee of the cooperative.

The rewards are many. All contestants will be associating with girls in their own age group, making new friends and each contestant will receive a suitable remembrance of the occasion. They will also benefit from the training received and experience in appearing before the public.

The winner will receive the sparkling winner's crown, a silver trophy, the winner's check for $150 clothing allowance and a three-day all-expense paid trip to Louisville for her and her family. There she will receive the award of expert cosmetician, hair stylist, and professional training in public and stage presence. She will also enjoy special group parties and appear at social functions.

The runner-up for the title of "Miss Fleming-Mason RECC" will receive the runner-up sash, a silver trophy and will serve as alternate.

At Louisville, Miss Fleming-Mason RECC will compete for the title of "Miss Kentucky RECC," the winner of which will represent the state in the National Beauty Pageant.

All eligible contestants are urged to send in their applications at once and if they wish further information or personal consultation, they may write Mrs. Sally Williams, Contest Director, % Fleming-Mason RECC, P.O. Box 328, Flemingsburg, Ky. 41041.

Appliance ownership increases

Nicholas county homes are better equipped today, with more of the conveniences of modern living, than they were in 1960.

The number of automobiles, stereophonic units, clothes dryers, dishwashers, air conditioners, electric blankets and the like that are in service is much greater than then.

The big-ticket items that were bought by local families since 1960 were acquired for the most part in the last two or three years, when many people, disturbed by high taxes and rising costs, put the brakes on unnecessary spending.

That made possible the purchase of these additional appliances was better earnings. Income in the
