

Your rights as a citizen

Every person enjoys certain rights set forth in the United States Constitution and protected by law. Listed here are but a few of these important rights...

The right to have legal counsel of your choice and a prompt trial if accused of crime. The right to be free from arbitrary search or arrest...

Your duty as a citizen

With your rights as a citizen of the United States of America, you have certain responsibilities. Every citizen shares them...

The duty to vote in elections. The duty to practice and teach the principles of good citizenship in your home...

MERCURY VAPOURS

by Warren R. Fisher

A friend on seeing last week's Mercury commented, "You'll never win with a beauty contest..." Other comments a good name with all those funny pictures...

Switch proves the postal department is efficient

When Tony Bennett sings "I left my heart in San Francisco..." I sympathize with him. When my wife cooks beef, I leave home...

about it. Jack Anderson is not the only columnist who can uncover secret government papers, you know...

THE PIED PIPER

I think you ought to know the Post Office has made a big switch. And, while you are saying it's true, I want to tell you about it...

With the first-class postage stamp going away, you are in the space of time it takes a letter to read the wanted posters on bulletin boards...
