Welcome Friends

Somehow, it is difficult to be a little homesick in the heart but a little of God's Grace will help you to forgive.

Mrs. Lenora George has gone back to her home.

Mrs. Ethel McGarry's daughter, Wilma of Texas, has been in.

Stop by and see us!

orchid to her twin sister, Wanda of Sharpsburg, for their birthday. Wanda unselfishly gave it to her brother.

Mrs. Vella Ritchie of Trinidad, Ohio, learned how to make a poultice. Orin, instead of using milk with a little water, thickened with flour, placed between two skin and place where it is needed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bell was glad to see her sisters in law, Mrs. Neil Rankin, Kanton and niece, Frances Fulton, of the Blue Ridge section. They stopped at her home with Tony Dotson and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Prayther of Bourbon county came Saturday to visit Mrs. Bell, and I feel sure they must have gone to see all their friends in the home. Old friends in Lexington and visited with her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. Bell. Also visited Mrs. Dalzell, Mrs. Huff, sister and so on.

Henry Thompson loves to read. He likes Westerns. Said he never went to school more than three days—one when he was three, one when he was seven, and one when he was eleven. He did not like it and attended no more days before he was 16, and that was it. Henry says he can read anything he wants to, can figure, worked many years in construction, and went to plumbing school. He is a native of Bath county.

Joe Blount was sporting a pretty blue shirt, which his niece, Pamela Milton, brought him from Zentlich.

Mrs. Claudia Wells just had a around her bed for the beautiful baskets of flowers wired to her from her Florida children.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jett of Portsmouth, Ohio came to see Bill's uncle, Oscar Johnson. They missed us, 25 were present.

After a fruitless search, and a taxicab ride around Paris, found out from Lucy Lemona the address of Lizette Hamm. She lives with Mr. and Mrs. Luther Grimes of 128 1/2 Street, Paris.

Vada Pfeiffer had a dozen roses made by her sister-in-law in Portsmouth. The following came to see her Sunday: Mrs. Juanita Montgomery and daughter Tammy of Fayetteville, N.C.; sister, Mrs. Donald Brooks and Mr. and Mrs. Garnett G. Price all of Portsmouth.

Mrs. Millie Buckler certainly has a faithful and loving family. They come sometimes two or three times a week and gather around her, all four generations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hornback of Bethel came Sunday to see Boone's sister, Nancy Harper.

George Donahue's daughter and husband of Bourbon county come every Sunday to see him.

Mrs. Mary Huffrester was so glad to see her little grandson, Jimmy Wood. "Miss" Mary said when I was a little girl, I kept a store around Sparks Ridge.

The Methodist Men had charge of the weekly worship service, Sunday afternoon. Clem Ritchie is the president, and was the leader. Mr. Howard Livingston Jr. was at the piano, it's wonderful that we have young people who take such an interest in the old. Rev. Don Fryman, the new pastor of Oakland Mills and Mt. Pleasant churches, was the speaker. He and his 10-year-old daughter, Laura stand together. Joe Schandig dis-
