

Championship regatta planned at Jenny Wiley

There is an excitement about the regatta which will be held in Eastern Kentucky at this time of year. This is a hill of depth and of peace that will provide a fine opportunity for the relaxation of mountains in spring.

Championship boat races, will create white water all the way from Arrowhead Point to Stratton Branch, past cove and glens, pine woods and glades.

It was estimated by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers that 36,000 people attend last August's regatta. Park manager John Combs believes that crowd of Dewey Lake will be alive with boaters and the handsomeness of those who love water sports, especially regatta.
