Health council to meet tonight

The president of the Bluegrass Regional Health Planning Council, James Benedict, has called a special meeting of the Council for Thursday, June 1 (tonight), at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Kentucky Utilities building, 120 South Limestone, Lexington.

The purpose of this meeting will be for the Council membership to make a decision as to whether or not a free-standing short-stay surgical facility shall be built in Lexington-Fayette County. This is a facility wherein minor surgical procedures are performed without hospitalization.

The Bluegrass Regional Health Planning Council serves Nicholas County, as well as Anderson, Bourbon, Boyle, Clark, Estill, Fayette, Franklin, Garrard, Harrison, Jessamine, Lincoln, Madison, Mercer, Powell, Scott and Woodford counties in Central Kentucky.

In service

Navy Airman Roger D. Bussell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster C. Bussell of Route 2, Sharpsburg, took part in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's operation "Dawn Patrol" aboard the aircraft carrier USS John F. Kennedy in the Mediterranean.

The exercise involved our Sixth Fleet and the navies of eight other NATO nations, and was designed to strengthen allied coordination during combined forces operations.

Honor group visits Berea

By Mike Rawlings

Under the supervision of sponsors Mrs. Clarine Gudgell, the honor students went, as a reward for their efforts, to Berea, to tour the campus and to eat at Boone Tavern, on May 19.

Among those present were: John Peters, Richard Mattox, Cheryl Lowe, Ann Marshall, Kathy Hopkins, Ernie Jones, Dayid Snapp, Jeff Rose, Michel Rawlings, Annette Pryor, Ricky Hicks, Tina Thacker, Theresa Barlow, Betty Ishmael, Mike Pryor and Gary Gray.

At Berea the guide took them on a tour of the woodworking shop, bakery, sewing room, weaving shop, and the Appalachian museum. During lunch, they enjoyed such treats as beef cubelettes, flounder, fried chicken, vegetable soup and corn sticks.

Notice

Ramona Sowell will be working at Imogene's Beauty Salon in Millersburg for a couple of weeks until her Salon is ready to open in Sexton's Trailer Park.

Nursing Home News

by Virginia Smith Donovan

God is like Bayer. He works wonders. God is like Ford, He's got a better idea. God is like Coke, He's the real thing. God is like Pan-American, He makes the going great.--copied

Mrs. Guy Bell is an interesting new resident. She was Elizabeth Rankin. Said for years she had corresponded with Mrs. Elizabeth Rankin Blount, wife of the late Dr. Henry Blount of Cynthiana. Said they were not related, and each signed her letter, "The other Lizzie". The older Blounts lived in the Mt. Carmel neighborhood for many years, and were were good friends of my parents.

Mrs. Victoria Helphenstine is now in the local hospital.

I recently heard a woman say that since she retired she had tried to write a letter each day to make someone happy.

Herman Conyers attended prayer meeting at the Mt. Pleasant Church.

Carlie Huddelston visited her daughter, Madline Hunt on Sunday. By the way, she has a vase of beautiful iris on her table--probably from one of her many kinfolks.

Mrs. Ellen Kenney said she could tell some big tales but hardly thought they were true! ,

Mrs. Mary Rogers had a vase of pretty red roses from her niece, Mrs. Judy Bradley of Bethel.

Sunday was the "Big Day", Open House at the nursing home. Folks came and went from 2 until 4 p.m. The staff, trustees, nurses, etc. all wore pretty silk badges telling just what they did. 150 signed the guest book. Cake and punch were served.

Forrest Fields was visited by his son, William Scott Fields, of Coshocton, Ohio recently. He brought a picture of Forrest's three-months-old great-granddaughter.

John Whaley visited the nursing home Sunday. Said he lived in the housing project on Sycamore Hill. Said it was his first trip to the home. He's just 83, but sings sacred songs over the Mt. Sterling radio station on Saturdays.

They keep bringing Mrs. Lora George pretty arrangements. She'll soon have a full room.

Esther Swartz said they had heard from her son, David. He's in Ft. Knox.

Everett Snapp was at the home Sunday, and was wearing a 20-year Sunday School Superintendent's pin. I believe he served at the Headquarters Church.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bell said her mother always said if in doubt don't do it.

Mrs. Nova Tumey is again living at the home. She brought her dust caps this time.

Wanda Martin of Sharpsburg visited her mother, Mrs. Ethel McCarty one day recently. Mrs. McCarty's son, Charles gave her a pot of beautiful blue hyacinths.

Lizzie Ratliff's daughter, Frances Bretz, has gone to Cedar Point, Ohio to work.

Jim Honaker spent a few days with his daughter, Della Mae Grey of the Jackstown neighborhood section.

Mrs. Bobby Barnett, accompanied by her big smile and friendly personality, made her first visit to the home Wednesday.

Mrs. Minnie Mitchell had a box or two of nice fruit, pears, bananas and what have you.

Mrs. Nellie Buckner, Fleming County, is a new resident.

Mrs. Mary Rogers went to Lexington recently. Her sister, Mrs. Bradley of Bethel went along also.

Tincy Frederick had a pretty white vase of snowballs. Believe they were from the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Sarah Willis has gone back to her home on Sycamore Street.

Mrs. Gerzie Bromagen had the pleasure of taking a ride with her son and daughter Sunday afternoon.

Tony Dotson had a birthday Tuesday. He was 90 years old. He and his friends had cake and more cake. Mr. Tony really appreciates every little act of kindness.

It is not only necessary to have faith in a good cause, we must also make an investment in it.

Blue Grass Industries Secretaries

Blue Grass Industries co-sponsored a delegation of plant managers and clerical staff to attend an all day business seminar, luncheon, and style show held at the Springs Motel. This event was by the Blue Grass Chapter of The National Secretaries Association in observance of National Secretaries Week. 18 clerical personnel and two plant managers from Blue Grass Industries' five locations attended this meeting. Those attending from the Carlisle plant from left to right, Alma Curtis, Jane Ellen Booth (NSA), Linda Boots, Virginia Dare Crump, Anna Lee Finch, Velma Emmons, Myrtle Ledford (NSA), and Edna Mitchell. The theme of this meeting was, "Spring Into Action", Andrew H. York, instructor of Dale Carnegie Courses, conducted a morning seminar on, "Memory, Attitudes, Motivation, and Communication". The afternoon speaker was Mrs. Phyllis Warren, executive secretary to Cattle Lou Miller, Commissioner of the Kentucky Department of/Personnel. Her topic was "Response and Responsibility". The April 29 meeting closed with a style show, stressing what the well dressed business woman wears for every occasion.

12 Nicholas Countians to attend 4-H Congress

Twelve Nicholas county 4-H students will attend the 4-H Leadership Conference--also known as 4-H Congress-- to be held June 5-9 at the University of Kentucky.

Those attending this event are: junior 4-H'ers Betty Ishmael, Cheryl Lowe, Peggy Tabor, Cliff Shumate, Jackie Alexander and Jimmy Smith. The senior 4-H'ers are Jonny Hunt, Carla Hunt, Debbie Ritchie, Eddie Ellington, William Bean and James Medley.

This year, a new kind of state conference for Kentucky 4-H'ers is planned--same time, same place, but combining many aspects of the past state programs dating them for today's youth.

The 1972 Kentucky 4-H Congress, which will attract some 1,200 young people, really is two conferences in one. The 4-H Congress will feature one program on government in a democracy, for seniors (ages 14-19), and another, emphasizing career opportunities, for younger boys and girls (sixth, seventh and eighth grades).

The older group will get a close-up view of the legislative process by serving as senators and representatives in sessions based on the U.S. Congress, including investigative committee hearings on seven areas of common concern: recreation and leisure time, educational opportunities, environment, careers and jobs, international problems and opportunities, social deviance (drugs, alcohol and crime), and human relations.

Each senior delegate has already been assigned one of these seven problem areas and is now researching the subjects in preparation for the Congress in June. Delegates in different areas of the state are holding "public hearings" on their assigned topics to find out more about those subjects in their part of the state.

Sessions for the younger 4-H'ers attending the Congress will emphasize the opportunities in 4-H project work and the career possibilities in fields related to the different 4-H projects.

The young people will visit several colleges of the University of Kentucky and have their choice of special sessions with different departments in the College of Agriculture and the School of Home Economics. Tours to points of interest in the Bluegrass area are also scheduled for this group.
