

Martha Jane Livesey xx
Margaret J. King Library
Trustees of Kentucky
Lexington, Ky. 40506

The Carlisle Mercury

289-2464
THE MERCURY

CARLISLE
AN ALL KENTUCKY CITY

105th year
Number 48

Carlisle, Kentucky 40311

Single Copy 15¢

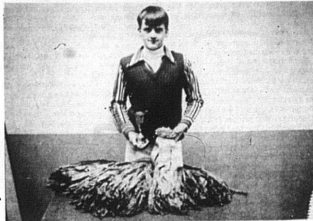

(10 Pages) Thursday, Nov. 30, 1972

30

NOV

30

Carlisle Manufacturing to hold open house Sunday

The remodeling and expansion of the Carlisle Manufacturing Company on Elm Street has been completed, and an "Open House" will be held on Sunday, Dec. 3 from 4 to 6 p.m. They will also be celebrating their 40th year in business in Carlisle. The public is invited to attend and tour the plant. There will be a display of the items manufactured, and refreshments will be served.

The Carlisle Manufacturing Company is a light manufacturing company producing precision shafts, screws, and rivets for business and office machines and home appliance industry. Russell Bell and Robert Faal are co-owners. Mr. Bell serves as president.

Kenneth Ishmael awarded city trash contract

The 30th bid of Kenneth Ishmael, one of the bids submitted to the Carlisle city council at their regular meeting Nov. 13, was accepted Monday night, Nov. 27 by that body for the coming year starting May 1. Council had previously voted $41 to study all bid proposals for two weeks before making their decision. The announcement was made Tuesday by Mayor Bill Power.

Jimmy Hall buys AnEl

Jimmy Hall has purchased the business and stock of AnEl Gift Shop from Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dangler. He will take over the business on Dec. 4, and will run the store under the AnEl name until Jan. 2, when he will open The Sewing Basket in the same location. Mrs. Jimmy Hall and Mrs. Marlene Walters will be in the store to assist customers. Mr. Hall will continue to operate Hall's Barber Shop.

Local Conservation District names Junior Board

The members of the recently organized Junior Board of the Nicholas County Conservation District attended the November meeting of the District Board of Supervisors.

Board organized
Edgar Allen Darrell, Chairman Nicholas County Conservation District, Mike Setton, Jerry Taber, David Vice, Jerry Crouch, Junior Board members, and Lovell Hollar, Education and Promotion Committee. Mike Jodge was not present when picture was taken. The Junior Board was organized at the November meeting of the District Board of Supervisors.

The remodeling and expansion of the Carlisle Manufacturing Company on Elm Street has been completed, and an "Open House" will be held on Sunday, Dec. 3 from 4 to 6 p.m. They will also be celebrating their 40th year in business in Carlisle. The public is invited to attend and tour the plant. There will be a display of the items manufactured, and refreshments will be served.

Head Start parents meet

The Nicholas County Head Start Parents held their second meeting of the year on Thursday, Nov. 16, in the Nicholas County Elementary School Cafeteria. Reports were given on the State Head Start meeting and the Parent Involvement meeting in Flemingsburg.

JC Little League tryouts on Dec. 2

The 1972-73 Little League Basketball tryouts will be held Saturday, Dec. 2, at 9 a.m. at the Nicholas County Elementary School Gym.

More schooling in Nicholas

Purely from a dollars and cents standpoint, what is the value of an education to a young man living in Nicholas County?

Emergency service available through Comprehensive Care

Twenty-four hour emergency services for emotional, mental health, drug, and alcohol crises are now available for Nicholas County residents.

National tractor pull contest deadline Dec. 18

December 18 is the deadline for receiving entries in the 1973 National Farm Machinery Show Tractor Pull at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center in Louisville.

This tableau of Christmas goodies is being offered for sale Saturday, Dec. 2, from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m., and at later dates also, provided there are enough items left. The Christmas Bazaar is being sponsored by the women of the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Items to be sold include Christmas decorations, ornaments, tree skirts, table and door decorations, candles, gift items are aprons, towels, baby gifts, gloves, teddy bears, homemade fruit cakes and candies.—Mercury picture

Still life

Friday is discount night at 3 firms

Friday, Dec. 1, beginning at 5:30 p.m. and continuing until 9 p.m., three local merchants will offer ten per cent off on all merchandise in their stores.

Nicholas squeaks in debut; comes from behind for overtime victory

Blatton free throw accounted for all the basket scores in the overtime but it was enough as Tolleboro could only come up with six.

Raymond Compton goes high into the air for two of his 11 points in Friday night's Bluejackets-Tolleboro game.—Crosby picture

Community organizations are being invited to enter floats in the parade float competition. Prizes will be a $75.00 first prize, $50.00 second prize and $35.00 third prize. Each organization entering a float will be given $10.00 to help defray expenses.—

Christmas Parade Dec. 7

The Carlisle Jaycees and Carlisle Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce Christmas Parade will be held Thursday, Dec. 7 at 7:30 p.m.

Emergency service available through Comprehensive Care

Twenty-four hour emergency services for emotional, mental health, drug, and alcohol crises are now available for Nicholas County residents.

Local Conservation District names Junior Board

The members of the recently organized Junior Board of the Nicholas County Conservation District attended the November meeting of the District Board of Supervisors.

National tractor pull contest deadline Dec. 18

December 18 is the deadline for receiving entries in the 1973 National Farm Machinery Show Tractor Pull at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center in Louisville.

Two of eleven