

Ain't it wonderful

It's a shame that more accolades about bureaucracy in action aren't brought to public attention. It would provide a lot of laughs, since the bureaucratic jungle is costing the taxpayers so much money. It's the Friday night in the Christian Church, according to Mrs. A. Allison, temporary chairman.

The newly formed Nicholas County Hospital Auxiliary will be its Friday night in the Christian Church, according to Mrs. A. Allison, temporary chairman.

AMAZING POINTS

Not many papers can report accidents before they happen. But Mrs. Lewis E. Chambers of Edson, Okla. had a good laugh recently on our error.

Editor, The Carlisle Mercury:
Thank you very much for the lovely piece of photography of our Christmas Bazaar window which appeared on the front page of the Mercury this week. I've heard many favorable comments on it. I hope that the readers of the Mercury of Our Lady of Guadalupe join in expressing our gratitude to you for the fine publicity you've given our Bazaar.

FRANKFORT—The State Racing Commission has approved the plan to de-legalize the pari-mutuel system throughout the state. The commission's decision is a landmark one. This act came last week after the Legislative Research Commission advised the Racing Commission to the national convention in San Francisco.

However a late case years ago of the Fair and Wildlife Commission. It will take a lot of time to work all of the 64 separate departments under the seven major "vertical control" that will be established by executive order of the governor.
