THE HOME GAME

by MARY FUREY CRYMES

JARRED OPEN — Tight screw-on caps on jars yield to the sandpaper treatment. Wrap a square of the handy paper around the top and twist lid off. Keep sandpaper in a kitchen drawer — it's great for many chores, like sandpapering potatoes lightly before baking. delicious.

FESTIVE FREEZE — Use dim-downers' favorite orange yoghurt as the base for a delicious and pretty frozen salad. Cut up a large can of apricot halves and stir into two cartons of orange-flavored yoghurt. Add a cup of sugar to the bowl and toss in a handful of chopped pecans for crunch. Line a muffin tin with paper bake cups and spoon the mixture in. Freeze, remove the cups and store in plastic bag for later use.

TOY TEPEE — Colorful sheets for youth beds can be used to make a toy storage spot in the corner of a little boy's room. Look for a flat sheet printed with Indian symbols and drape it over three wood slats taped together at the top. Double-sided tape secures the edges of the sheet to the floor and the tepee's entry is made by stapling sheet sides to two more flat stakes. Glue and tape these to an inverted V, and it's ready.

SOCK SOCKAWAY — Those foam plastic egg cartons make dandy storage boxes for kids' socks. Remove lids, line up cartons in a drawer and drop a rolled-up pair of socks in each cup. Hair ribbons, tiny barrettes and hairpins can also be kept neat in these.

CAMP WASHUP — Before dinner begins around the campfire, put on the water for dishwashing. Sand will scour dirty pots and fry pans before dunking and rinsing in second pot of clear hot water. Be sure to tuck scouring powder, dishmop and gloves in camp gear.

SUDDEN SPUDS — Need a quick potato salad? Dice and fry four slices of bacon and dry on paper towels. Drain two cans of whole potatoes and cube. Toss spuds and bacon with diced celery, hard cooked eggs and chopped black olives. Lace the works with bottled Thousand Island Dressing. Chill.

Kay's Kitchen

— By Kay Fisher —

BEEF STEW IN RED WINE

This is a recipe for the busy housewife, the one who works, or for any cook who is on the go, or one who just wants to have the main dinner dish fixed ahead of time. You may make this early in the day or even the night before. During the winter months I often do some cooking over the weekend or on Sunday afternoon. Anything that takes a long time to cook can be plunking in the kitchen while you read the Sunday newspaper. Beef Stroganoff, Stews, Soups, or Chili. This recipe is a bit different. The lemon gives it a different flavor. Try it one of these cool days.

4 tablespoons margarine
2 pounds beef chuck, cut in 1 inch cubes
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
3 medium onions sliced thin
1 clove garlic, crushed
1/2 teaspoon basil
grated peel of 1/2 lemon
1 teaspoon paprika
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1 cup dry red wine
1 cup canned beef broth, or you may use 1 bouillon cube dissolved in 1 cup water, or 1 cup canned beef gravy
1 can mushrooms, or for an extra touch use 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, chopped
chopped parsley

Melt margarine in Dutch oven and brown beef lightly. Add salt, onion, garlic, basil, grated lemon peel and paprika. Cover and simmer for 30 minutes.

Sprinkle flour over beef and mix well. Add wine and beef stock, cover and simmer until meat is tender. About 1 1/2 hours at low heat.

Mix in the chopped fresh mushrooms or drained canned mushrooms and simmer 15 minutes. Sprinkle with chopped parsley when ready to serve.

Boiled potatoes, buttered noodles or rice goes well with any stew. Be sure to serve a light green vegetable--I don't mean light in color. Stewed tomatoes complement the stew as does a good tossed salad topped with crumbled crisp bacon and croutons served with your favorite dressing.

If you are serving this for a company meal try serving green asparagus or green peas served with a dollop of sour cream topped with slivered almonds.

Do serve a very light dessert. Plum Parfait would be very good. I have given that recipe several times but if you would like to have it again just let me know. You can make it ahead of time and it is colorful and light after a full meal.

COMPANY APPLES

12 pitted dates
preserved ginger
3/4 cup sauterne
4 large apples, cooking variety. Golden Delicious are good for this dessert.
1/4 cup sugar
whipped cream

Slit dates lengthwise; insert sliver of ginger in each date.

Core apples and make a light incision in skin around the center of each one to keep apples from bursting while baking. Fill apples with dates and sugar. Place apples in baking dish, add sauterne and bake 45 minutes or until done. Apples should be soft, but not mushy.

To serve place apples in serving dish, spoon sauce over each one and top with whipped cream. One apple per serving, so if you have several to serve, count noses and increase proportionately. Use three filled dated per apple and enough sugar and sauterne to have juice to pour over apples when serving.

* * *

Here is a lemon parfait that will serve eight and is light, tart and is a refreshing end to a meal. It is easy to make and not expensive.

LEMON PARFAIT

1 cup whipping cream
1 envelope unflavored gelatine
2 tablespoons water
1/3 cup lemon juice
4 eggs
1 cup sugar
cherries and whipped cream for garnish

Soften gelatine in the water in a small saucepan. Heat slowly until gelatine is dissolved. Cool. Add lemon juice. Beat the eggs with the sugar until thick and lemon colored. Beat in gelatine mixture. Fold in 1 cup of the whipped cream and pour into glasses. When set, garnish with remaining whipped cream and cherry.

* * * * *

Save this for some time when you want something special for a buffet or brunch.

MUSHROOM NEWBURG

1 pound fresh mushrooms
1 tablespoon flour
4 tablespoon butter
1 1/4 cups light cream. (I use half and half)
1/4 cup dry sherry
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon freshly grated nutmeg
3 beaten egg yolks
4 patty shells (you can buy frozen ones)

Wash mushrooms; remove stems. Coat mushrooms, stems and caps, with flour; brown in butter about 5 minutes, till all moisture has evaporated. Add cream, sherry, salt, and nutmeg; cook, uncovered, about 2 minutes, till heated through. Add a little of the hot mixture to beaten egg yolks; stir into mushroom mixture and cook, stirring constantly, till mixture bubbles. Cook 2 minutes more. Serve in warm patty shells.

Kay's Kitchen

This addition to the regular Kay's Kitchen, which was already set, is by request. Seems there are still some nice small green tomatoes around and they are perfect for this recipe.

GREEN TOMATO DILL PICKLES

Add a few slices of onion to each jar, if desired--
5 pounds small firm green tomatoes
garlic cloves
fresh dill heads or dilleeed
whole cloves
1 quart vinegar
1 quart water
1/3 quart pickling salt

Wash tomatoes, slice 1/4 inch thick. Pack loosely in hot quart jars. To each quart add: 3 or 4 heads dill or 2 tablespoons dilleeed, 1 garlic clove, and 1 whole clove. Heat vinegar, water, and salt to boiling; pour into hot jars to within 1/2 inch of top. Adjust lids. Process in boiling water bath for 20 minutes (start timing as soon as jars are placed in warm water). Makes 5 quarts.
