

Martha Jane Livesey xx Margaret I. King Library University of Kentucky Lexington, Ky. 40506

3 School Board openings up to voters; boundaries of districts are outlined

Three Nicholas County School Board positions will be filled in the upcoming November election. They are District One, District Two and District Three...

Educational District Number One shall be composed of Barrertville and Headquarters Precincts and a portion of the City Building Precinct...

The Nicholas County High School cheerleaders perform a routine at the Morgan County game Friday night.

Jackets drop third in a row

Thoughtfulness...

Bill Mathews, president of Newspapers, Inc., Shelbyville; George Wilson, secretary-manager of Kentucky Press Association...

of Kentucky Press Service look over important notes to be discussed at one of the sessions of the annual meeting of Newspapers, Inc. held Friday and Saturday in Louisville.

New want ad policy in effect

The publisher and editors of the Carlisle Mercury after many months of deliberation have put into effect a new policy concerning classified advertising...

You may mail your classified ad to us or drop it in the front door, but if it is to be published it must be accompanied by the payment.

Band Booster meet

The Nicholas County High Band Boosters will have their regular monthly meeting, Monday night, Sept. 18 at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Emmett Darrell.

Tax relief for food shoppers

The final phase of Gov. Wendell Ford's tax package--the removal of the sales tax on food as enacted by the 1972 General Assembly--goes into effect Oct. 1.

Nicholas County Elementary PTA to meet Sept. 19

The Nicholas County Elementary PTA will hold its first meeting of the year on Tuesday, Sept. 19, at 7:30 in the school cafeteria.

This will be a wonderful opportunity for parent and teacher to become acquainted, so that they might work together effectively.

Five are charged

Five persons were charged with gambling in a raid on a house in Madison county Sunday night. The five were arraigned at the...

It's always hurry up...

It's always hurry up... The stalwart Republicans await the arrival of former Governor Louie Nunn, at the Carlisle courthouse...

Total Arrest 17, Speeding 1, Reckless Driving 1, Disorderly Conduct 4, Public Drunk 7, No Operators License 1, Running Stop Light 1, City Slicker 1, Permitting Unlicensed Driver to operate motor vehicle 1, Driving while intoxicated 1, On Accounts 3, Total Fines, $790.50, Motor Deposits $144.09, Total $1,205.19.

Pony bolts, serious tragedy averted

Only providence prevented a serious tragedy Sunday afternoon when an unknown person driving a blue car scratched off down Ky. 36 into Ky. 32 (east to west) causing a pony to bolt.

The run-a-way animal pulling a pony cart with three young ladies hunched the rear of another automobile spilling the youngsters onto the road surface, breaking the pony's leg and damaging both pony cart and car.

Huddleston bangs away on tax issues

Walter "Doc" Huddleston, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, hammered away at the tax issue and the GOP opponent's financial policies as he campaigned through 14 central and northern Kentucky counties this week.

The Democratic candidate uttered the seven-point labor program which he, as Senate Majority Floor Leader, guided through the 1972 legislature, and pledged to continue in the U. S. Senate the concrete and commitment to work among men that was his record in the state senate.

Commenting on Supreme Court Justice William Douglas' opinion that the Vietnam War is unconstitutional, at a Marion County campaign break on Tuesday, Sept. 5, Huddleston said the Senate has not, in the past, fulfilled its responsibility to involve itself and exert...

Youth rally Sunday

The Little Rock Christian Church will host the September meeting of the Harrison-Bourbon County Youth Rally, on Sunday the 17th at 2:30 p.m.

The speaker will be Bro. Gary Boyd of Cincinnati, Bro. Boyd is a 1972 graduate of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary and a missionary recruit to Canada. Bro. Boyd has been to Carlisle on many occasions. Gary is the brother of Mike Boyd who is a past youth minister of the Carlisle Christian Church. Bro. Boyd will be presenting a karate demonstration and his personal testimony for Christ at the Youth Rally. The public is invited to share in this spiritual highlight.

- Alcoholic beverages, Canned soups, Canned apples, Canned peaches, Canned peaches, Canned apples, Canned peaches, Canned apples, Canned peaches...