Nursing Home News

By Virginia Smith Donovan

Grant us brotherhood, not only for this day but for all our years--a brotherhood not of words but of acts and deeds.--Stephen Vincent Benet, poet.

Miss Martha Bradburg said her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathias came from Lexington and visited her.

Those curled carrots that Anna Mae Gillispie served to Phillip's girl friend on one day must have made a lasting impression on the "fair lady". You may find out more about this later, watch the papers.

Mrs. Victoria Helphenstine said her faithful son and his wife of Fleming County visited her over the weekend.

Robert Tout left the home to live at his home on Chestnut St.

Mrs. Iva Ritchie, her niece, and Mrs. Iva Loper, sister of Mrs. Nova Toomy visited her Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Coleman of Paris visited in the home Sunday, I believe she said she was a step granddaughter of Mrs. Effie Ritchie. She has, so many to visit her. She was in the hospital several days not too long ago and I failed to get it in the paper, but everyone is glad she's back in her own room with Miss Wyatt.

The weekly worship service was held Monday by the Rev. Herman Kamlage. There were about eight present in the little chapel and several just outside listening. Rev. Kamlage gave part of his Sunday morning Church service. He read part of the Commandments and gave a nice talk on "love", just what holds the world together. He told us our hearts were restless without God. We sang a song, he prayed and he sang a solo a new song, "Happy the Man."

Responsibility is the price every man must pay for freedom.--Edith Hamilton.

Miss Bradbury wears such a pretty sweater, looks new but she said her Sunday School class gave it to her several years ago.

That "Pappy" Jim Honaker really gets around. He spent last week at Jackstown with his daughter, Della Mae Grey and soon he's heading for Ohio to visit relatives. He showed us a picture taken at a reunion up there. There were 36 in the picture, he said that was about one third of those present. He was sitting right in the middle, was all dressed up, just looked like he had old corn to sell. At 91 he enjoys life.

Mrs. Anne Timmer was all smiles Sunday. No wonder her daughter Mary Ann and sister, Elizabeth Schweitzer, of Dayton, and a friend, Alberta Moreno of Cincinnati visited her.

Roy Snapp's minister, Rev. James McCann, visited him.

Mrs. J. Angus Jacobs was at the home Sunday and visited several friends. She said she thought the home was beautiful, was her first visit

Some of the youth of the C.A. group came out and delivered a little card board vase like with pretty plastic flowers. These were from the Assembly of God Church. Each token said "God Bless You."

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Turner of Agusta, Ky. visited Mrs. Effie Ritchie.

Mrs. Vada Pelfrey said her grandson, David Swartz who is in the service, was home a few days. That must have been why Esther was all smiles.

Mrs. Claudia Wells said her daughter from Florida had made her a second visit and Chandler Thompson of Robertson County came to see her one day.

At last science has caught up with the funny books.

Today, "Home Sweet Home" usually winds up with a promissary note.

Mrs. Mary Patton of Millersburg came to see Mrs. Fannie Earlywine.

Some Christians give to the Lord's works weekly others give "weakly".

I was so happy to have a letter from my good Kenton County friend, Sister Emily. She is now living in Colorado and is giving Occupational Therapy with the elderly there, says she just loves them and they love her.

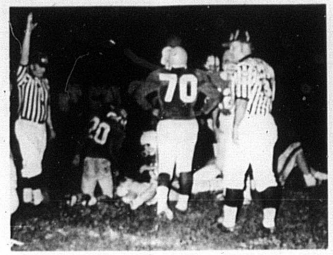
Mrs. Elizabeth Bell is a very interesting person, said she used to give music lessons. She has some nice little cross stitched mats, from a little Korean girl, she corresponded with.

No one is useless in this world who lightens the burden of it to anyone else.--Charles Dickens.

At this writing Tony Dotson is back from the hospital, Mrs. Ethel McCarty remains a patient there.

It's what you learn after you know it all that counts.

It's more important to know where your youngsters are to-night than to know where your ancestors were when the Mayflower landed.



A first down, one of many, is gained by Conner against Nicholas County High School last Friday night.--Conley photo

IGA CONSUMER CORNER

WHAT ABOUT BRANDS?

You, the American shopper, are entrusted today with products beyond your childhood imagining! New products, going well over already existing 8,000, are available to you every year. Decisions on just what brands to put on your shelves is a responsibility that we take very seriously. Our customers expect us to carry only those brands ... national brands ... quality ... savings ... as well as our own private label brands. We think you'll find that the more than 1,500 IGA supermarket operators who own their own outlets and are licensed to bring you IGA products, carry just what you want them to carry. We're proud of the fact that we're helping to bring you the American way of life ... the right to choose ... the right to buy what you want ... the right to say no to anything you don't want ... the right to go to this store or that store.

NATIONAL BRANDS — A brand belonging to a food processor or manufacturer who markets his products in all types of stores and advertises it extensively. Product quality is of high or above-average standard.

PRIVATE LABEL — A brand owned by a food retailer (chain or cooperative). Products usually vary in several cents less per unit than national brands. Quality is usually comparable to that of high-priced nationally advertised brands.

CONTROLLED LABEL — A brand owned by a food or grocery manufacturer. The sale of which is controlled, or held exclusive to distributors who are supplied by the manufacturer. Products usually have no general sales appeal but are sold to a select group of customers. Quality is usually comparable to that of high-priced nationally advertised brands.

IGA is controlled label as its member IGA retail stores may These retailers depend upon IGA Sell Offices of Chicago to obtain the highest quality foods at the lowest permissible price to bring you IGA value. That is why IGA consistently offers you more value for your hard expenditures than any other brand.

Drug hearings underway

Senator Marlow Cook said in Washington that the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, on which he serves, opened hearings Sept. 12 for the purpose of exploring worldwide drug traffic and its impact on America's security.

Noting the hearings could well be the most important ever held on the drug situation, Senator Cook said he thought the testimony before the subcommittee might point the way toward legislation to enable the United States to meet the continuing challenge of disrupting drug traffic into this country.

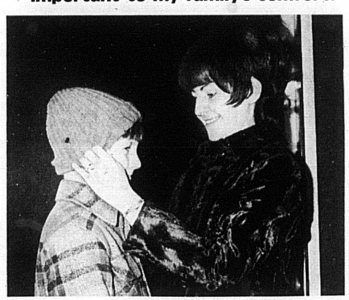
"Electric heat and warm clothing are both important to my family's comfort."



Mrs. Don Webb and Jeff, of La Center, Ky.

"But electric heat costs us a lot less!"

"Dress them warm to go out — keep them warm when they come home." Feeling that way about their family, the Webbs installed a guarantee of perfect comfort — electric heat — in their new home. Interestingly, they find that important contribution to family happiness costs lots less than their annual clothing bill.

There are several electric heating systems to choose from. And every one gives you amazing cleanliness, precise thermostatic control and big maintenance-dollar savings.
