for a change. They will have their hands full, for Parls has a fine team with their usual speedy backfield, but the Jackets are very capable of pulling the upset if they decide to give a 100% team effort instead of their usual spotty individual. "It's a when-they-feel-like-it-or-not-they-like-it game. Get the lead out and you know you can do it. Or do you like your cash repudiations that you really should last year.

The Jacket offense, namely "Bill Livingston was held in check by a team that was able to substitute freely and confidently, Livingston is gaining a reputation as a fine, bruising type of runner and with the right support could make a name for himself. As it is, the Jackets as a team had to have the zip that they had early in the season.

Jackets drop fourth to midfield on their next drive as a couple of nice runs by Ken Livingston and Dennis Berry. That was the second time in two days, and they were forced to punt for the second time in two days. The Cougars' return to the field started from a 20-0 returned to a clipping penalty on the play. The Cougars offense, which took only 11 plays to march 80 yards, made the Cougars' last play for the extra was very short, making the score 14-0 in favor of the Cougars.

Nicholas got as far as midfield again thanks to a "wealth-man-on-the-field" penalty against Connor, as the first quarter ended. On second and ten, quarterback Joe Wilson went to "half" Livingston on a rifty flare pass, pick-off yard. Nicholas lost possession on third down, due to a fumble on a quarterback sneak attempt.

Cougar's took over and moved quickly down to the Jacket 33 where Robbie Mack went off tackle, knocking three half-backs. The jacket excuses for tackling attempt. The fun for extra made it 22-0.

Ken "full" Livingston decided to get things moving by putting on an individual effort. On 1st and 10 from his own 20, Livingston started the end for a first down on the following play, he went off tackle for 6 pick-ups of 15.

He was stopped cold on his next two attempts. Roy Fryman's fourth and four punt was returned to Connor forty, but the Jackets got a break as Connor was caught with too many goals on the field for the second time of the night. This gave the Cougars 1st and 10 on Connor's 48 yard line. After three punts, the Cougars took the 50, the Jackets kicked it away. Nicholas County's numerous tackling game was at its peak, as Connor returned to Fryman's forty yard line back to their own forty yard line.

Roy Lay carried the ball down to the Jacket twenty-five where he was robbed of an apparent touchdown by Raymond Compton's gutsy ditched on a 10 yard sack-off carried around the end two plays later for an 11 yard touch-down. On the extra point, the Cougars were checked by the Jackets and Connor threw a 20 yard, long pass. Nicholas took over on their own 35 after a 10 yard sack-off return by Ken Smit. Nicholas returned to play on their own 35 and attempted to spark some offense on the next play. The plan backfired, however, when Joe Wilson picked off the Jackets' quarterback half-back pass was intercepted and returned for the Jacket 30. Connor sent Bobby Mack off for a 10 yard sack-off a score. Mitch Rice and Billy Darczell plugged up the running attempt for the extra point.

Kurt Kelly returned Connor's kick-off to the 35 yard line. The 1st half ended with Connor holding a very commanding 24-0 lead over an exhausted Nicholas County bunch.
