THE '73 FORDS ARE HERE.

At 60 mph a '73 Ford LTD rode quieter than an airborne glider.

On July 27, 1972, General Radio Co. tested a '73 LTD against an airborne glider. Both at 60 mph and with identical sound level meters, the result: The Ford was quieter. But the new LTD is more than just quiet. It's well made from its power front disc brakes, power steering and automatic transmission, standard equipment, to the luxurious, comfortable, roomy interior. There are 16 new Ford models to choose from and each will convince you that quiet is the sound of a well-made car.

A '73 Torino rode so smooth, a high wire artist kept balance on a road of 2x4's.

Chances are you won't try to balance yourself on top of your new Torino. But, when you're riding inside, you'll still appreciate Torino's refined suspension—because it helps to cushion bumps, absorb road vibrations and reduce body sway. You feel solidly in control while you ride in comfort and luxury. The solid mid-size Torino. Smooth riding, strong and quiet.

'73 Pinto: When you get back to basics, you get back to Ford.

Ford, the company that built the first basic, solid, reliable car seventy years ago has built today's basic, solid, reliable car: Pinto. It's become America's top selling economy car for more reasons than economy. Here are some of those reasons: A 1600 cc. engine developed and perfected in over 10 years of actual driving. Rack-and-pinion steering. Solid welded body, electroplated to fight corrosion. 4-speed transmission—label for life. Everything we've learned in seventy years of car making—all the basics—we built into every Pinto Wagon, Runabout and Sedan. When you get back to basics, you get back to Pinto.

There are 39 new models to choose from.

And every 1973 Ford, Thunderbird, Torino, Mustang, Maverick and Pinto—comes equipped with new energy-absorbing bumpers and steel guard rails in all side-views. Steel-welded radial ply tires and A.M. FM stereo radios are optional on all models. Test-drive these new Fords at your Ford Dealer's now.

All 1973 cars must meet Federal Emission Standards before sale. See your Ford Dealer for details.
