APES '73

FINAL APES '73 SESSION

East Union
 By Mrs. Eugene Robinson

There was a recreation for everyone held at the East Union Store Tuesday night. Fanny Robinson played and sang some songs she had written.

There was a stork shower given for Mrs. Jeffrey Tolson Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Curtis.

Mrs. Emma Baker and four children of Morehead visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Robinson, on Sunday.

Billy Robinson of Millersburg was baptized at the Carlisle Baptist Church Sunday night at 7:00.

Wesley Chapel to hold Fund raising pageant

On Good Friday, April 20, at 7:00 p.m. the church will have a pageant in which someone will be crowned Mrs. Mrs. or Miss Carlisle for Good.

The contestants reporting the highest amount of money over $100 will be crowned first, second, and third places respectively. All members of the church are invited to attend.

The pageant is the young people accept special recognition. A few have already reported $100 and more. They are: Mrs. Cleo Thompson, Mrs. Edna Boyd, Mrs. Martha Edwards, Frank Boyd, Miss Sharron O'Bannon, Miss Vanessa Williams, and Arreous Williams.

All members and contestants are expected to make their financial reports to the finance committee at 6:30 p.m., Good Friday, at the church. The finance committee: Rev. Dallas Sizge, William Bean, James Oliver, and Mrs. Biny.

The pageant is Wesley Chapel's and Carlisle's thrust to do something about our church building. We have two priorities: 1. Kentucky Annual Conference Assessments $667.00; 2. First National (bonded notes).

All money raised over the priorities will go into the building fund. You may look for a wonderful change in the church building. Many talented guests have been invited. The ministers of the city are requested to serve as escorts for the baby inspiring as well as entertaining. Everyone is invited. A reception will follow in the church parsonage.

These two had a combined weight of 100 pounds and two days. The bull weighing 100 pounds and the better 100 pounds. They are half breed Chianina, and are owned by S. W. Campbell of Lexington, and Marion George, Carlisle. The Chianina cattle derives its name from the Chiana Valley in the province of Tuscany, where it originated, probably during the Roman Empire, and where it still is the principal breed for work and beef production. It is the largest of all cattle breeds. Mature bulls stand 6 ft. 10 in. at the withers, and weigh up to 4,000 pounds. The females weigh up to 2,400 pounds.
