Ministers decide spring events

Dr. S. Evans Brown presided over the Feb. 18 meeting of the Nicholas County Ministerial Association. The association made plans for several events this spring.

The first of these events will be the potluck exchange on Sunday, Feb. 18 at the morning worship service. This exchange of potluck is in celebration of Christian Unity Week which ends Feb. 18. Dr. Brown will be the guest at the first worship of the Carlisle United Methodist Church, Rev. C. L. Cooper will fill the pulpit of the First Christian Church in the Carlisle Presbyterian Church will have as their guest speaker Rev. Neil C. Thompson.

The potluck event for Central Chapel Methodist Church will be Rev. H. Dallas Sugg.

The association is sponsoring an evangelistic emphasis on April 1 at 7:30 p.m. This meeting will be in cooperation with 'Key 73' which is an evangelistic emphasis by all denominations.

The Easter Season will be issued in with a cantata on April 15 at 2:30 p.m. There is to be a community choral group organized under the direction of Mr. Sugg. The Good Friday service will be held on April 20 from 7:00 p.m. until 3:00 p.m. The annual Easter Service Service will be held at 6:30 a.m. on April 22. The time and place for each of these meetings will be announced at a later date.

In addition to these plans the association planned for a community offering to be taken at the Good Friday service by the Kurt Kelley Fund.

Put on a happy face and make a resolution to smile. We wish friends and patrons a peaceful New Year.

Church members to honor pastor

The First Baptist Church of Carlisle has declared the week of Feb. 19-25 as 'Pastor Appreciation Week.' In honor of the Rev. H. Dallas Sugg and family.

A different class or group in the church will be remembering them in some way each day. Special emphasis will be put on gratitude for the services on Sunday, Feb. 25.

Sunday evening of the 25th a banquet honoring the Sugg family will be held in the dining hall. Ralph Shearer will serve as Toastmaster, with other members taking part on the program. The invitation is extended to any friend of Mr. Sugg who would like to attend and show appreciation for the many things he does for the community, as well as for individuals outside of his own church membership. The meal will be buffet, each one brings a dish of meat, vegetable or salad. The bread, drinks and dessert will be supplied.
