

Like it is . . .

There is a professed fondness nowadays for "letting it lie". Senator Harry F. Byrd Jr., of Virginia, does not just let it lie in the record of the history of federal government spending over a 20-year period.

The soaring interest charge on the public debt during the estimate for 1973. He revealed that fiscal 1973 is expected to show government receipts of $152.8 billion. Spending is forecast as reaching $194 billion leaving a deficit of $47.8 billion.

MERCURY APPOINTS

Several people, mostly businessmen, have asked us about the "Executive Planning Manual" we have given out the past two years.

It was pointed out that we had taken the money we would have spent for this monthly calendar memorandum added to a like sum, then donated this to the Nicholas County Recreation and Park Board.

Oh boy! Didn't the sunlight look good that day, or was it just a flake of snow from the Kentucky Crop and Livestock Reporting Service News points up the fact that Kentucky weather has been predominantly wet and cloudy since mid-October.

In fact it has so much today that I've been unable to get proper fill out of the water at Lake Carriazo, so this may be the year I learn whether it hurts a pontoon fish to leave it in the water all winter.

Santa was good to me, at least he let me get over that "Bug" which knocked me for a loop for some 18 to 20 hours prior to Christmas. Others who know of weren't so lucky.

Last week I spent several minutes reading Janice Dawson in the art, in one call it that, of developing 120 size roll film. Part of the operation must be that you haven't made your own.

Whether it was beginners luck or good intuition I suppose I will never know. Next she can try her hand in the report the Nikkor reel with 35 millimeter film, also in total darkness, so that is the size of the film.

Food prices at retail have increased about 44 percent from the level of 20 years ago, while wholesale food prices have increased about 21 percent, and food prices at the farm have increased six percent.

The major concern of many people centers around the rising trend in meat prices. The basic reason for increasing meat prices is the continued strong demand for meat by the consumer and the relatively slower increase in meat supply.

At the regular monthly meeting of the city council Monday night, the council granted an extension until Jan. 16 for the Barton House, Lexington, Kentucky, and interested it added.

It's been one of those flakey, freaky years, I was telling my wife the other night. "I see the Scroggias this time of year," she said.

My Man of the Year award goes to old friend Herbert Gordon Hillman of Portland, who is so ecology conscious he has had paper napkins with a paper company to log some 400 acres of land in the Bull Run area.

It's a good idea that we keep horses from contaminating the water. One of the best designed canvas paper diapers for his two lambs and the pollution boys are ecstatic. They see it as a little more money to be of a particular use. So he withdrew my presentation until he shows me that it is a waste of paper.

At this season of the year, when so much is spent on food, the center of attention is on food prices.

Many people are wondering what effect the removal of beef import quotas will have on beef prices.

Say What I Think by S. C. VanCuren

FRANKFORT Thomas H. Harris will have two important headlines when he becomes Commissioner of the new Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in January.

Harris will have little effect on the farm price for beef. There will, however, be relatively greater impact on the price of cow beef and other low grade beef animals which are utilized in processed beef.

KEEPING CHRISTMAS PLANTS If you received a flower for Christmas, you want to keep them fresh as long as possible. Here are some tips that might help.
