

A return to decency?

As we enter the year 1973 there are encouraging signs that we might have a good year. And one of the most encouraging news stories is the report that Groves Press, Inc., the notorious printer and publisher of pornography and hate-America literature, has been dropped from the over-the-counter market because it has lost $250,000 and has dropped to less than the $250,000 minimum required for listing.

Conservation District opposes President's action

The Nicholas County Conservation District Board of Supervisors consisting of Fred Whaley, Edgar Allen Dargatzis, Ralph Howell, Howard Sidle, Stanley C. Taylor, William N. Young, and David Lovell Brocklehurst went to the regular monthly meeting as opposing the President's action of January 8, 1973. Environmental Assistance Program.

MERCURY POURS

The other morning I offered my neck a healthy mechanic. Perhaps the job could be tackled indoors. Needless to say, it could be accomplished inside.

And my offer of help was made or based on what I have about taken some 30 years ago, so I was much gratified that the ten speeds forward part of that particular bicycle had been attended by the manufacturer.

BOYD MEMORY LANE AGREE or NOT

I Say What I Think by S. C. VanCurion

FRANKFORT—How does it feel to be sheriff of one of the richest counties in Kentucky and have to borrow money from the bank to pay operating expenses for the office?

The sheriff hasn't been the bank yet, but he must go since he hasn't collected any fees on tax bills that were due Oct. 1 for the simple reason the tax bills aren't out. The Franklin County Board of Education has to borrow $50 per hundred pounds. This was the highest price reported for one hundred of tobacco on any market in the state this year.

Combined deposits of the four banks in Nicholas county at the close of business on Dec. 31 amounted to $20,223.09. D. W. Brantman, local agent for the 1, 2 & 3 Railroad, suffered a serious fracture of the right arm Tuesday night last week when he fell backward from an express truck while unloading express on the night train.
