SECRETS OF PERFECT PLEATS
There's something synonymous between a happy marriage and the perfect suit. Each take the right kind of ingredients and enough interest to make them work well!

Following the pattern guide, we tailor's facks to mark the creaseline and the placement line for each pleat. Different color threads mark identification points...

Columbis Gas compressors recover natural gas from well

"Operation map-up" is on at Columbia Gas Transmission Corporation-Charles City Group. Its purpose is to recover gas that will not flow naturally from a well into a higher pressure line because the well pressure is too low.
