Kay's Kitchen

Several letters to Kay's Kitchen recently have asked for recipes which have been handed and sealed. When peppers are cooled, start lightly with filling and do not let it burn too thick.

With this meal I serve omelette. Cook until thick. This may not be the most elegant recipe, but it is simple and easy.

COGN PUDDING: 3 tablespoons melted butter, 3 eggs well beaten, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 cup sugar.

PEAR DELIGHT: Creamed carrots, mix a little of the use into cream cheese to make a soft, and finely chopped peas. Put a

Miss Wyrick weds Dec. 17

Miss Denise Wyrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyrick of Mayville, became the bride of Mr. J. R. Specker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond Specker of Dayton, Ohio.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Wray, Rev. Don Dowd, and John Lee, flutist and soloist, both of Dayton, Ohio.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Joe out at the sides. Have it soft but not runny.

Here is my recipe for Banana Bread. It is rich enough to serve as dessert or as a sandwich spread with cream cheese.
