

Soil supervisors fete ministers, others as plans are laid for Stewardship Week

The Nicholas County Conservation District Board of Supervisors began their preparation for Soil Stewardship Week by holding a dinner meeting for the Nicholas County ministers. This was a joint meeting with the Robertson County Board, who had as guests their wives and the ministers of Robertson County.

Soil Week May 27-June 3

Soil Stewardship Week, a nationwide observance which emphasizes man's obligation to God as stewards of the soil, water, and other resources, will be observed May 27-June 3. "Changing Challenges," the theme of this year's observance, invites you to increase your understanding, expand your perspective, and consider your responsibility to the challenges and changes of the World around you.

The Kentucky Association of Conservation Districts and 121 Conservation Districts in Kentucky, along with the National Association of Conservation Districts, are sponsoring the event for the 18th consecutive year here in Kentucky.

Co-chairmen named for '73 Ky. cities contest entry

David Zachary, Carlisle-Nicholas County Chamber of Commerce president, has appointed Jannine Hall and Dr. Andrew Haman as co-chairmen in the preparation of Carlisle's 1973 All-Kentucky City entry.

At a committee meeting held May 10, Hall stated that many volunteers are needed to compile the facts to be used in the ten categories which will be entered. He asked that anyone willing to help gather specific data concerning any local project, please contact the committee member assigned that category.

In order to be named an All-Kentucky City, Carlisle must win excellence in four of the ten categories. Mrs. Jack Conley will assist the committee with the writing of the entry. Zachary and Estil Moffitt have volunteered to take pictures as needed. A film slide presentation must also accompany the written entry.

The ten categories to be entered, and the committees assigned each are: Natural Resources, Estil Noffsinger; Industrial Development, Henry Peters; Commercial Development, David Zachary; Residential Development, Loyd Wells; Local Government, Billy Hopkins; Recreational and Cultural, Dr. Andrew Haman; Public Health and Welfare, Mrs. Paul Donovan; Education, Mrs. Jimmy Conrad; Utilities and Services, Morris Whiteley; Ecological Improvement Program, Andy Dudley.
