Vandalism occurs at Park

Vandalism has occurred during the past several weeks at the Recreation Park on East Union Road, site of destruction and installation of new recreation facilities.
According to Dr. Robert Sparks, chairman of the Nicholas County Recreation and Parks Board, all trash cans which were locked to posts secured on the grounds were ripped from the posts and destroyed. One can was found on the railroad tracks and one in the creek adjacent to the park area.
Chains on the swing sets are missing and the aprons on one of the rocking animals was damaged beyond repair.
Dr. Sparks requests that only children use the equipment on the lot. He also made an appeal to all Nicholas Countyans to see that the Recreation Park, a good condition so that all may enjoy using it.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Welcoming service
The Nicholas County Ministerial Association will sponsor a "Welcoming Service" for the Rev. Paul Bigby at the Wesley Chapel C.M.E. Church, Sunday, May 20, at 8 p.m. According to the community contact news, the minister will preach and the offering will be donated to the Chapel's building fund. Members of the Carlisle churches and friends are invited to attend this worship service.
Mr. Bigby, the present minister of the church, received his B.A. degree from Lane College, Jackson, Tenn., and has done graduate work at Siff School of Theology, Denver, Colo., Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, and the University of Louisville.

Even if a person specifically forbids publicity, he does not thereby become immune.
In one case, the irate father in a custody fight ordered reporters to "lay off" the story. But the story appeared anywhere—with pictures. The man claimed invasion of his privacy, but a court decided that he had no legal kick coming.
"There are times," said the court, "when one, willingly or not, becomes an actor in an occurrence of public interest. When this takes place, he emerges from his seclusion, and it is not an invasion of privacy to publish his photograph with an account of such occurrence."
On the other hand, an item of information does not automatically become newsworthy just because a newspaper sees fit to print it. For example:
A newspaper published a notice by a hardware dealer, complaining about a certain customer's unpaid bill. This time, when the other hand, an item of information does not automatically become newsworthy just because a newspaper sees fit to print it. For example:

HOSPITALITY SHAKER-VALE

HOSPITALITY was the theme at Shakerstown at Pleasant Hill at Tourist Information Center workers from Pikesville to Fulton gathered for their first training session of 1973. Twice each year, these people, who represent Kentucky to people who travel through Kentucky, have workshops to learn the latest tourism methods and hear speakers on topics of current import. Park Commissioner Ewart Johnson (upper right) addresses the group, bringing greetings from Governor Wendell Ford, and stressing the importance of Kentucky's Parks and the Information Centers. Mr. Earl Wallace (lower right), Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Shakerstown at Pleasant Hill, served as official host for the day and discussed the history of Shakerstown. Mrs. Ann Brooks (upper left), a regional director of Bicentennial '74, invited 100 Center workers on the progress of the 1974 celebration and how they will be able to implement the over all plan of telling tourists about the events. Bob Miller, Director of the Kentucky Travel Council, a division of the Chamber of Commerce, discussed hospitality, bringing to light that attitude is what makes hospitality, and hospitality is what makes Kentucky. As part of the training program, Commissioner Johnson, Mrs. Frances Spillman, Frankfurt, and the additional 30 employees and guests did Shaker-vale (center).
