By Virginia Smith Donovan

Sometimes happiness comes without any warning. It may be in the morning window. First thing in the morning, Mrs. Elizabeth Bell enjoys her talking book. Her friend, Mrs. Shirley Hildreth, sent her all the books of the New Testament she could find. Elizabeth and she enjoyed every word of it.

The candy strippers still visit us. It's interesting to see the faces of the good people light up when they come around. My granddaughters, Terri Shearer, is now working as a candy stripper in a Louisville hotel, and Mrs. Ann Turner, Mrs. Boyd Caywood and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Toot of Mt. Sterling, visited Robert Toot Sunday. The men are nephews of Mr. Toot. His daughter, Mrs. Sam Curtis, comes most every day. Miss Mary Ann Turner of Dayton, Ky., visited her mother, Mrs. Ann Turner on Mother's Day.

John Richards of Bath County, is a new resident. Mrs. Pauline Stone Jones of California, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Maude Stone, showed us the picture of the bridge of London, England. This was a 10,000 mile journey which took three years. King William IV dedicated the bridge the first time in England. This was a 10,000 mile journey which took three years.
