High school students exhibit poetic skills with help of 'in-residence' poet Bernie Bever

by Rob Lane

Go riding a moon cloud
In the night and find Mother
Star drying her fingernails
on a sunburst
Mark S. Vice

Shakespeare? No. — James Whitcomb Riley? Not quite. But poetry? Yes. This is one of literally hundreds of poems composed by Nicholas County High School students in a four week program directed toward getting students to appreciate, enjoy, and feel poetry.

The program, a part of the NCHS English department in cooperation with the Kentucky Arts Commission, includes its own "in-residence" poet who works with students in writing their own poetry. Called the Poetry in the Schools Program, it is also sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts. The poet in his duration at schools helps students "develop their creativity, imagination, appreciation of poetry, and it expands their language skills," says Kentucky Arts Commission Director of Literary Arts, Nash Cox.

There are three poets conducting the program this year: Richard Taylor, Ms. Joe Easton, and Bernie Bever. Bever, or as the students refer to him, "Bernie" is working at NCHS. Bernie has a BA degree in Sociology and an MA degree in creative writing from DePauw University, Green Castle, Ind. He taught at University of Wyoming for two years. In the last two years he has worked in Prestonsburg for the Department of Child Welfare as a juvenile counselor. He now lives in Midway.

The focal point of his discussions with students is that "you must feel poetry." For example:

You are you and
I am me.

I am subject to my own opinions.
You are subject to yours.

Out of common courtesy
I will respect your views
If you, in turn, respect mine.

For who is to say who is Right or Who is Wrong?
Lisa Reynolds

"You can't close off part of your mind when writing poetry. You've got to use it all," says Bernie.

LIFE
It's a wall
God built to surround us
to protect us (to harm us)

it holds us when we're falling it drops us when we take for granted
(but its there)

it's a foam wall that bounces us off
when we try to resign it's a solid brick that stands by us for strength
(but it can be overpowered)

it spreads light in darkness and gives to everyone
its naps; but there's something missing:
When you take Life you also get (Death)
Anna Shearer

Poetry does not have to be little ditties with a definite ta-da ta-da rythmn.
Nothing of importance to say
Ordinary, Thats me
Thirsty for something to say
How can I put it into words
Ideas are few and far between
Nothing still to say
Give up, that's what I'ss do.
Tara Bowen

They don't even have to make sense.
My Poem

I can't write a poem
oh, I wish I could write a poem
oh, I think I just did write a poem!
Kay Ruble

They can be funny.
Mothers

Mothers are nice
Mothers are fun
When I see my mother I start to run.
Danny Jones

Thinking That

Colds are rotten things.
You feel terrible. You know no one else feels as bad as You.
ZUT!
One ear hears o.k. and the Other throbs and jumps as if
An anvil is beaten by a sledge.
Mucus clogs your Breathing passages. Your Nostrils flare, only to admit
No air. Sinuses, which are Empty cavities in your head
Where no brains were put,
Move and heave, crawl and flow.
Its like the end and you . . . . . .
Robert Tout

They can be ugly.

The Crowded Lonely Place

The city of neon lights,
Everybody's in a hurry, busy,
Running around in circles.
Horns blowing, tires screaming,
An old yellow cat,
Sitting on the street corner.
A bum trips
While crossing the street.

A taxi driver speeds up to beat a red light,
The cops have pulled over
some drunken teen-agers,
Somewhere down the street
A baby's crying,
A dog howls not far away.
Frightened children peep out
From behind the curtains,
And see nothing but darkness.
And here you are, walking down
A crowded lonely street.

No friends around, yet everyone's
A member of the human race.
You reach out your hand to give help,
Yet, where help is needed,
It is not accepted,
There is no gesture of thanks,
No, none in the Crowded lonely place,
By name called New York City.
Angela Mosely

Through this innovative program NCHS English teachers have hoped to bring that traditionally ho-hum world of poetry into a tangible world for young people.

THE HOME GAME

by MARY FUREY CRYMES

RUG RAISER — Chamois cloth, slightly dampened, will restore the nap to rugs flattened by heavy furniture. Place the folded cloth over the depression and leave it overnight. Nap is returned, and no brushing is necessary.

SUNNY TOPPER — To make gourmet stuff of plain cake, pudding or fruit, top it tropically. Buy a can of the new frozen red fruit punch concentrate. Thaw and mix with a small can of drained crushed pineapple. Adds vim to vanilla ice cream, too.

MERRY MATS — Cut ovals or oblongs of felt. Glue holiday motifs to surface or decorate with sequins and braid. Cut matching ovals or oblongs of heavy clear vinyl (the kind used for rainwear), cover felt mats with them, and edge with bright satin seam binding. Nice for Yuletide or other festive meals at home, or as gifts.

PAIL PURPOSE — Save gallon-size plastic bleach bottles and cut a large hole down the right side, retaining the handle. You have a handy tote for small garden tools, carpentry items and cleaning materials. It's a watering can and a handy mixing container for paint, also.

ERASE AWAY — Cut cleaning bills for suede and rough leather coats and garments. Rub spots with a soft art gum eraser and blow away crumbs. Go over entire surface with cloth dipped in vinegar and wrung almost dry. Good for shoes, too.

SHIRT SAVER — Save large spools when thread is gone. Straighten the hook of a wire coat hanger, slip the spool over and rebend the hook. Shirt collars will stay smooth and unwrinkled when placed against the spool.

FOR YOUR WALLS — For directions on hanging wallcoverings easily, send a postcard with your name, address, zip code to HOME GAME, care of this newspaper, requesting free booklet, "How To Hang Wall Coverings."

MAGICWORD by JULIE QUART

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find the words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Clay R. Pollan

Note planetary ruler of your birth symbol

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, NOV. 19, 1973

If your birthday occurs this week . . .

. . . you apparently know the right people and are able to get the right introductions. This will count a lot in social and business dealings. This also is an excellent cycle for handling any type of "property dealin" and buying things for family or home. Life is due to take on a few glow.

♈ Aries | Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 | Pluto ♇

You may be asked to make a choice between two people or two issues. This may be a distasteful role, but be fair and do your best. Many comment that your appearance or attitude has changed. You are more vital, definite and decisive. Associates may be involved in disputes. Be objective.

♉ Taurus | Apr. 20 - May 20 | Venus ♀

Get up in the mornings fresh, vigorous and optimistic. Avoid fretting about things that'll never happen. Start the days off with cheer and a heart full of love. Stimulated sociability is evident. Entertain in style. Be seen in prosperous and plush places. Be loyal without being foolish.

♊ Gemini | May 21 - June 20 | Mercury ☿

Be courteous and willing to listen to someone who played a role in your past life. He/she may ask a delicate favor. Be careful in your decisions or actions. Closing your eyes to actualities would be wrong. Be wary of one who makes rosy promises. Stay steady. Pay little attention to rumors.

♋ Cancer | June 21 - July 22 | Moon ☾

There'll be nothing this week. You really need this peaceful period. Take it easy, do your work slowly and talk kindly to those who seek your companionship. Break free from restrictions. You have the right to enjoy yourself, alone if you wish. Be versatile. Make intelligent concessions.

♌ Leo | July 23 - Aug. 22 | Sun ☉

A wish you've cherished for a long time may come true this week. You prove that you have been right about things in general. Continue to be guided by high motives. You're bound to win out if you don't waver. Excellent cycle for visits and short trips. Be sure you get your right share.

♍ Virgo | Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 | Mercury ☿

A new and glamorous person may appear on your scene. Don't be overly impressed by sweet-talk and rosy promises. He/she may want something you possess. Those in authority may tend to be exacting. Let them have their way, if they please. Invite an important person to your home. Entertain.

♎ Libra | Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 | Venus ♀

A good money week. Financial affairs that have been pending may be resolved much to your benefit. Fresh opportunities present themselves. Key is to follow through on competent advice and suggestions. Keep social and party plans in abeyance. Concentrate on money-making. You'll win!

♏ Scorpio | Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 | Mars ♂

Romance is in the picture. Emotional involvement is indicated. Don't neglect your responsibilities. If you do, you'll pay a pretty price. An old matter may cause you great concern. Someone's troubles may be put in your lap. Aspects warn of dissension. Strive for peace of mind.

♐ Sagittarius | Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 | Jupiter ♃

You'll find that old methods give best results, although they may cramp your style. It's well to be original and aggressive, but walk along the conservative path. Friends will fall in with your wishes, if boldly approached. Go ahead if opportunity offers to socialize with elderly folk.

♑ Capricorn | Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 | Saturn ♄

Don't let a feeling of nostalgia affect your work. Avoid the sentimentality of yesterday. Be more forward looking, alert and decisive. Don't accept a new friendship too quickly. You'll have a chance to even up an old score. Take no chances with life, limb or money. Stick to basic principles.

♒ Aquarius | Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 | Uranus ♅

A rewarding week. Whatever you decide to do, it will turn out well. The companionship of someone you love will have a good tonic effect. Also you'll improve your business relationships. A chance to dramatize your talents may come. Join a celebration should the occasion arise.

♓ Pisces | Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 | Neptune ♆

You could be quite disturbed at the pile of work you have to contend with. By all means, do not walk out on a job. Think twice and be agreeable. Shower the one you care for with affection. A nice gift would work wonders. A good money development makes you happy. Aim toward the future. Forget the past.
